TO
The Christian Reader ;
Especially heads of FAMILIES.

Since we cannot but with grief of Soul lament those multitudes of Errors, Blasphemies, and all kinds of prophaneness, which have in this last Age like a mighty Deluge overflowen this Nation, so among several other sins which have helped to open the Flood-gates of all these impieties, we cannot but esteem the disuse of Family-Instruction one of the greatest. The two great Pillars upon which the Kingdom of Satan is erected, and by which it is upheld, are Ignorance and Errour; The first step of our manumission from this spiritual thraldom consists in having our Eyes opened, and being turned from darknesse to light; How much the serious endeavours of godly Parents Act. 26. 18. and Masters might contribute to an early seasoning the tender years of such as are under their inspection is abundantly evident, not only from their special influence upon them in respect of their Authority over them, interest in them, continual presence with them, & frequent opportunities of being helpful to them, but also from the sad effects which by woful experience we find to be the fruit of the omission of this duty. 'T were easie to set before you a cloud of

Witnesses the language of whose practice hath been not onely an eminent Commendation of this duty, but also a ferious Exhortation to it. As Abel though dead, yet speaks by his example to us for our imitation of his Faith, &c. So do the examples of Abraham, of Joshua, of the Parents of Solomon, of the Grand-mother and Mother of Timothy, the Mother of Augustine, whose care was as well to nurse up the Souls, as the Bodies of their little ones, and as their pains herein was great, so was their successe no way unanswerable.

We should scarce imagine it, any better than an impertinency in this noon-day of the Gospel, either to inform or perswade in a duty so expressely commanded, so frequently urged, so highly encouraged, and so eminently owned by the Lord in all ages with his blessing, but that our sad experience tells us this duty is not more needful than 'tis of late neglected. For the restoring of this duty to its due observance give us leave to suggest this double advice.

The first concerns Heads of families in respect of themselves, That as the Lord hath set them in place above the rest of their Family, they would labour in all Wisdom and spiritual Understanding to be above them also. 'Tis an uncomely sight to behold men in years Babes in Knowledge, and how unmeet are they to instruct others who need themselves to be taught which be the first principles of the Oracles of God? Knowledge is an accomplishment so desirable that the Devils themselves knew not a more taking bait by which to tempt our first Parents, than by the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge: so shall you be as Gods knowing good and evil. When Solomon had that favour shewed him of the Lord, that he was made his own chuser what to ask, he knew no greater mercy to beg than Wisdom. The Understanding is the Guide & Pilot of the whole man, that faculty which sits at the stern of the soul: but as the most expert guide may mistake in the dark; so may the Understanding when it wants the light of Knowledge; without Knowledge the Mind cannot be good, nor the life good, nor the eternal condition safe, My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge, 'Tis ordinary in Scripture to set prophaneffe and all kind of miscarriages upon the score of

of Ignorance. Diseases in the body have many times their rise from distempers in the Head, and Exorbitances in Practice from Errours in Judgement, and indeed in every sin there is something both of Ignorance and Errour at the bottome, for did sinners truly know what they do in sinning, we might say of every sin what the Apostle speaks concerning that great sin, had they known him, they would not have crucifi'd the Lord of glory, did they truly know that every sin is a provoking the Lord to jealousy, a proclaiming war against Heaven, A crucifying the Lord Jesus afresh, a treasuring up wrath unto themselves against the Day of Wrath, and that if ever they be pardoned, it must be at no lower a rate than the price of his blood, it were scarce possible but sin instead of alluring, should affright, and instead of tempting scare. 'Tis one of the Arch-devices and principal methods of Satan to deceive men into sin; thus he prevailed against our first Parents, not as a Lyon, but as a Serpent, acting his enmity under a pretence of friendship, and tempting them to evil under an appearance of good, and thus hath he all along carried on his designs of darknesse by transforming himself into an Angel of light, making poor deceived men in love with their miserie, and hug their own destruction. A most sovereign antidote against all kind of Errours, is to be grounded and settled in the faith: persons unfixed in the true Religion are very receptive of a false, and they who are nothing in spiritual knowledge are easily made any thing. Cloudes without water are driven too and fro with every wind, and ships without ballast lyable to the violence of every tempest. But yet the Knowledge we especially commend is not a brain-Knowledge; a meer speculation, this may be in the worst of Men, nay in the worst of Creatures, the Devils themselves, and that in such an eminency, as, the best of Saints cannot attain to, in this life of imperfection; but an inward, a savory, an heart knowledge, such as was in that Martyr, who though she would not dispute for Christ, could dye for him. This is that spiritual sense and feeling of divine truths the Apostle speaks of Heb. 5. 14. Having your senses exercised, &c.

The Epistle to the Reader.

Rinal Crit.
Sacr.

But alas we may say of most Mens Religion, what learned Rivet speaks concerning the Errours of the Fathers, they were not so much their own Errours, as the Errours of the times wherein they lived. Thus do most men take up their Religion upon no better an account than Turks and Papists take up theirs, because us the Religion of the times and places wherein they live, and what they take up thus slightly, they lay down as easily. Whe eas an inward taste and relish of the things of God is an excellent preservative to keep us seled in the most unsetled times. Corrupt and unfavoury Principles have great advantage upon us, above those that are spiritual and sound, the former being suitable to corrupt nature, the later contrary, the former springing up of themselves, the latter brought forth not without a painful industry. The ground needs no other Midwifery in bringing forth weeds than onely the neglect of the Husbandmans hand to pluck them up; the Ayr needs no other cause of darknesse, than the absence of the Sun, nor Water of coldnesse, than its distance from the Fire, because these are the genuine products of Nature. Were it so well with the Soul (as some of the Philosophers have vainly imagined) to come into the world as an Ab rasa Tabula, a meer blank or piece of white paper, on which neither any thing written nor any blos, it would then be equally receptive of good and evil, and no more averse to the one than to the other, but how much worse its condition indeed is, were Scripture silent, every mans experience does evidently manifest. For who is there that knowes any thing of his own heart, and knowes not thus much, that the suggestions of Satan have so easie and free admittance into our hearts, that our utmost watchfulnesse is too little to guard us from them, whereas the notions of Gods Spirit are so unacceptable to us, that our utmost diligence is too little to get our hearts open to entertain them. Let therefore the Excellency, Necessity, Difficulty of true Wisdome, stir up endeavours in you, somewhat proportionable to such an accomplishment, above all getting et Understanding, and search for Wisdome as for hidden treasures;
it much concernes you in respect of your selves.

Prov. 4. 7.
Prov. 2,

Our

Our second Advice concerns heads of Families, in respect of their Families; what ever hath been said already though it concerns every private Christian that hath a Soul to look after, yet upon a double account it concerns Parents & Masters, as having themselves and others to look after. Some there are who because of their ignorance cannot, others because of their sluggishness will not mind this duty. To the former we propound the method of Josbua, who first began with himself, and then is careful of his Family; To the latter we shall onely hint, what a dreadful meeting those Parents and Masters must have at that great day with their Children and Servants, when all that were under their inspection, shall not onely accuse them, but charge their eternal miscarrying upon their score. Never did any age of the Church enjoy such choice helps as this of ours. Every age of the Gospel hath had its Creeds, Confessions, Catechisms, and such Breviaries and Models of Divinity as have been singularly useful. Such forms of sound words (how ever in these days decry'd) have been of use in the Church ever since God himself wrote the Decalogue as a summary of things to be done, and Christ taught us that prayer of his, as a directory what to ask. Concerning the usefulness of such compendary Systems, so much hath been said already by a learned Divine of this age, as is sufficient to satisfy all who are not resolved to remain unsatisfied.

Concerning the particular excellency of these ensuing Treatises, we judge it unneedful to mention those eminent testimonies which have been given them from persons of known worth in respect of their judgements, Learning, & Integrity, instance both at home & abroad, because themselves speak so much their own praise; Gold stands not in need of Varnish, nor Diamonds of painting, give us leave only to tell you that we cannot but account it an eminent mercy to enjoy such helps as these are; 'Tis ordinary in these days for Men to speak evill of things they know not, but if any are possessed with mean thoughts of these Treatises, we shall onely give the same counsel to them that Philip gives Nathaniel, Come and see. 'Tis no small advantage the Reader now hath hath, by the Addition of Scriptures at large, Whereby with little paines he may more profit, because with every truth he may behold its Scripture foundation. And indeed considering what a Babel of Opinions, what a strange confusion of tongues there is this day, among the who profess they speak the language of Canaan, there is no intelligent person but will conclude that advice of the Prophet especially suited to such an age as this, Isa. 8. 20. To the Law and to the testimony if they speak not according to this word, 'tis because there is no light in them. If the Reverend and Learned Composers of these ensuing Treatises were willing to take the paines of annexing Scripture-proofs to every truth, that the faith of people might not be built upon the dictates of men, but the Authority of God: So some considerable paynes hath now been further taken in transcribing those Scriptures, partly to prevent that grand inconvenience (which all former impressions (except the Latin) have abounded with, to the great perplexing and disheartning of the Reader) the misquotations of Scripture, the meanest Reader being able by having the words at large to rectifie whatever mistake may be in the Printer in citing the particular place; partly to prevent the trouble of turning to every Proof (which could not but be very great) partly to help the memories of such who are willing to take the paines of turning to every proof, but are unable to retain what they read, and partly that this may serve as a Bible Common place, the severall passages of Scripture which are scattered up and down in the word, being in this Book reduced to their proper head, and thereby giving light each to other. The advantages (you see) of this design are many and great. The way to spiritual knowledge is hereby made more easie, and the ignorance of this age more inexcusable.

If therefore there be any spark in you of love to God, be not content that any of yours should be ignorant of him whom you so much admire, or any haters of him whom you so much love. If there be any compassion to the Souls of them who are under your care, if any regard of your being found faithful in the day of Christ, if any respect to future generations, labour to sow these seeds of Knowledge which may grow up in after times. That you may be faithful herein, is the earnest prayer of

A Grave and Serious Advice of the MINISTERS of the KIRK of SCOT-LAND, to Masters of Families that they may govern according to the Word of God.

Besides the Publick Worship in Congregations, mercifully established in this Land in great Privity; it is expedient and necessary, that Secret Worship of each person alone, and private Worship of Families, be pressed and set up; that with national Reformation the profession and power of godliness both personal and domestick be advanced.

I. And first for secret worship: It is most necessarie, that every one a part and by themselves be given to Prayer and Meditation, the unspeakable benefit whereof is best known to them who are exercised therein, This being the mean whereby in a special way communion with God is entertained, and right preparation for all other duties obtained: And therefore it becommeth not only Pastors within their several Charges to press persons of all sorts to perform this duty Morning and Evening, and at other occasions, but also it is incumbent to the head of every Family, to have a care that both themselves and all within their charge be daily diligent herein.

II. The ordinary duties comprehended under the exercise of Piety, which should be in Families when they are convened to that effect, are these: First, prayer and praises performed, with a special reference as well to the publick condition of the Kirk of God and this Kingdome, as to the present case of the Family, and every member thereof. Next, Reading of Scriptures with Charechizing in a plain way, that the understandings of the simpler may be the better enabled to profit under the publick Ordinances, and they made more capable to understand the Scriptures when they are read; together with godly conferences, tending to the edification of all the members in the most holy faith; as also, admonition and rebuke upon just reasons from these who have authority in the family.

III. As the Charge & office of interpreting the holy Scriptures is a part of the Ministerial calling, which none (howsoever otherwise qualified) should take upon him in any place, but he that is daily called thereunto by God and his Kirk. So in every Family where there is any that can read, the holy Scriptures should be read ordinarily to the family; and it is commendable that thereafter they confer, and by way of conference make some good use of what hath been read and heard, As for example, if any sin be reprov'd in the word read, use may be made thereof, to make all the family circumspect and watchfull against the same; or if any judgement be threatned or mentioned to have been inflicted in that portion of Scripture which is read, use may be made to make all the family fear, lest the same or a worse judgement befall them, unless they beware of the sin that procured it. And finally if any duty be required, or comfort held forth in a promise, use may be made to stir up themselves to employ Christ for strength to enable them for doing the commanded duty, and to apply ply the offered comfort; In all which the Master of the family is to have the chief hand, and any member of the family may propone a question or doubt for resolution.

IV. The head of the family is to take care that none of the family withdraw himself from any part of family-worship. And seeing the ordinary performance of all the parts of family-Worship belongeth properly to the head of the family, the Minister is to stir up such as are lazy, and train up such as are weak to a fitness for these exercises; It being alwaies free to persons of quality to entertain one approved by the Presbytery for performing family Exercise: And in other families where the head of the family is unfit, that another constantly residing in the family, approved by the Minister and Session, may be employed in that service; wherein the minister and Session are to be countable to the presbytery. And if a Minister by divine providence be brought to any family, it is requisite that at no time he convene a part of the family for worship, secluding the rest; except in singular cases specially concerning these parties which (in Christian prudence) need nor or ought not to be imparted to others.

V. Let no idler who hath no Particular calling, or vagrant person under pretence of a calling, be suffered to perform Worship in families to or for the same; seeing persons tainted with errors, or aiming at division, may be ready (after the manner) to creep into houses, and lead captive silly and unstable souls.

VI. At family-Worship a special care is to be had, that each family keep by themselves; neither requiring, inviting, nor admitting persons from divers families, unless it be those who are lodged with them, or at meal, or otherwise with them upon some lawful occasion.

VII. Whatsoever hath been the effects and fruits of meetings of persons of divers families in the times of corruption or trouble (in which cases many things are commendable, which otherwise are not tollerable,) yet when God hath blessed us with Peace and the purity of the Gospel, such meetings of persons of divers families (except in the cases mentioned in these directions) are to be disapproved, as tending to the hinderance of the religious exercise of each family by itself, to the prejudice of the Publick Ministry, to the renting of the families of particular Congregations, and (in progress of time) of the whole Kirk: besides many offences which may come thereby to the hardning of the hearts of carnall men, and grief of the godly.

VIII. On the Lords day, after every one of the family apart, and the whole family together have sought the Lord (in whose hands the preparation of mens hearts are) to fit them for the publick Worship, and to bless to them the publick Ordinances, the Master of the family ought to take care that all within his charge repair to the publick Worship, that he and they may joyn with the rest of the Congregation; And, the publick worship being finished, after prayer he should take an account what they have heard; and thereafter to spend the rest of the time which they may spare in Catechizing, and in spiritual conferences upon the Word of God: Or else (going apart) they ought to apply themselves to reading, meditation, and secret prayer, that they may confirm and encrease their communion with God; that so the profit which they found in the Publick Ordinances may be cherished and promoted, and they more edified unto eternal life.

IX. So many as can conceive Prayer, ought to make use of that gift of God: albeit those who are rude and weaker may begin at a set form of prayer; but so, as they be not sluggish in stirring up in themselves (according to their daily necessities) the Spirit of Prayer, which is given to all the children of God in some measure, To which effect they ought to be the more fervent, frequent in secret Prayer to God for enabling of their hearts to conceive, and their tongues to express convenient desires to God for their family, and in the mean time, for their greater encouragement, let these materials of Prayer be meditated upon, and made use of, as followeth: Let them confess to God how unworthy they are to come in his presence, and how unfit to worship worship his Majesty; and therefore earnestly ask of God the Spirit of Prayer.

They are to confess their sins & the sins of the family, accusing, judging, and condemning themselves for them, till they bring their souls to some measure of true humiliation.

They are to pour out their souls to God, in the name of Christ, by the Spirit, for forgiveness of sins, for grace to repent, to believe, and to live soberly, righteously, and godly, and that they may serve God with joy and delight walking before him.

They are to give thanks to God for his many mercies to his People, and to themselves, and especially for his love in Christ, and for the light of the Gospel.

They are to pray for such particular benefits, Spiritual and Temporal, as they stand in need of for the time (whether it be Morning or Evening) as health or sickness, prosperity or adversity.

They ought to pray for the Kirk of Christ in general, for all the Reformed Kirks, and for this Kirk in particular, and for all that suffer for the Name of Christ, for all our Superiors, and their Children, for the Magistrates, Ministers, and whole body of the Congregation whereof they are Members, as well for their Neighbours absent in their lawful affairs, as for those that are at home.

The Prayer may be closed with an earnest desire, that God may be glorified in the coming of the Kingdom of his Son, and in the doing of his Will; and with assurance that themselves are accepted, and what they have asked according to his Will shall be done.

X. These exercises ought to be performed in great sincerity, without delay, laying aside all exercises of worldly business or hinderances, notwithstanding the mockings of Atheists, and profane men; in respect of the great mercies of God to this Land, and of his severe Correction, wherewith lately he hath exercised us: And to this effect, persons of eminency (and all Elders of the Kirk) not onely ought to stir up themselves and their Families to diligence herein, but also to concur effectually, that in all other families, where they have power and charge, the said exercises be conscientiously performed.

X I. Besides the ordinary duties in Families, which are above mentioned, extraordinary duties both of Humiliation and Thanksgiving are to be carefully performed in Families, when the Lord by extraordinary occasions (private or publick) calleth for them.

X I I. Seeing the Word of God requireth, That we should consider one another to provoke unto love and good works; Therefore at all times, and specially in this time, wherein profaness abounds, and Mockers, walking after their own lusts, think it strange that others run not with them to the same excess of riot, Every Member of this Kirk ought to stir up themselves and one another to the duties of mutual Edification, by Instruction, Admonition, Rebuke, exhorting one another to manifest the grace of God, in denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, and in living godly, soberly, and righteously in this present world, by comforting the feeble-minded, and praying with or for one another; Which duties respectively are to be performed upon special occasions offered by Divine Providence; as namely, when under any calamity, grosse or great difficulty, counsel or comfort is sought, or when an Offender is to be reclaimed by private Admonition, and if that be not effectual, by joyning one or two more in the Admonition, according to the rule of Christ, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

X I I I. And because it is not given to every one to speak a word in season to a wearied or distressed conscience, it is expedient, that a person (in that case) finding no ease after the use of ordinary means private and publick, have their address to their own Pastor, or some experienced Christian: But if the person troubled in Conscience be of that condition, or of that sex, that Discretion, Modesty, or fear of scandal, requireth a godly, grave, and secret Friend to be present with them in their

their said addresse, it is expedient that such a Friend be present.

XIV. When Persons of divers Families are brought together by Divine Providence, being abroad upon their particular Vocations, or any necessary occasions, as they would have the Lord their God with them whithersoever they go, they ought to walk with God, and not neglect the duties of Prayer and Thanksgiving, but take care that the same be performed by such as the Company shall judge fittest; and that they likewise take heed that no corrupt communication proceed out of their mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the Hearers.

The drift and scope of all these directions is no other but that upon the one part the power and practice of godliness among all the Ministers and Members of this Kirk, according to their several places and vocations, may be cherished and advanced, and all impiety and mocking of religious Exercises suppressed; And upon the other part, that under the name and pretext of Religious Exercises no such Meetings or Practices be allowed, as are apt to breed Error, Scandal, Schism, contempt or misregard of the publick ordinances and Ministers, or neglect of the duties of particular callings, or such other evils as are the works not of the Spirit, but of the Flesh, and are contrary to truth and peace.

have Moses and the Prophets, let them hear them. v. 31.] And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. Eph. 2:20: And are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. Rev. 22. 18, 19. v. 18.] for I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the Prophecie of this Book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall adde unto him the plagues that are written in this Book. V. 19.] And if any man shall take away from the words of the Book of this Prophecie, God shall take his part out of the Book of life, and out of the Holy City, and from the things which are written in this Book. 2 Tim. 3. 16. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

III. The Books commonly called Apocrypha, not being of Divine inspiration, are no part of the Canon of the Scripture; and therefore are of no authority in the Church of God, nor to be any otherwise approved, or made use of, than other humane Writings h.

these are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which are written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms concerning me, Rom. 3. 2. Much every way, chiefly because unto them were committed the Oracles of God. 2 Pet. 1. 21. for the Prophecie came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

(i) 2 Pet. 1. 19, 21. v. 19. ] we have also a more sure word of Prophecie, where- unto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts. V. 21. ] for the Prophecie came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 3 Tim. 3. 16. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 1 John 5. 9. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater, for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son. 1 Thes. 2. 13. for this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not at the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

(k) 1 Tim. 3. 15.

But if I tarry long that thou mayst know how thou oughtest to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

(l) 1 John 2. 26, 27. v. 20. ] but ye have an unction from the holy one, and ye know all things. V. 27. ] but the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you; But as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lye, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. John 16. 13, 14. v. 13 ] howbeit when he the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth, for he shall not speak of himself, but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak, and he will shew you things to come. V. 14. ] he shall glorifie me, for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. 1 Cor. 2. 10, 11, 12. v. 10. ] but God hath revealed them to us by his Spirit, for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea the deep things of God. V. 11. ] for what man knoweth the things of a man, save the Spirit of man which is in him, even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. V. 12. ] now we have received not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Isa. 59. 21. as for me this is my Covenant with them saith the Lord, my Spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the moath of thy seeds seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever.

I V. The authority of the Holy Scripture, for which it ought to be believed & obeyed, dependeth not upon the Testimony of any man; or Church; but wholly upon God (who is Truth it self) the Author thereof; and therefore it is to be received, because it is the Word of God i.

V. We may be moved and induced by the Testimony of the Church, to an high and reverent esteem of the holy Scripture k. And the heavenliness of the Matter, the efficacy of the Doctrine, the majesty of the Style, the consent of all the Parts, the Scope of the whole (which is, to give all glory to God,) the full discovery it makes of the only way of mans salvation, the many other incomparable Excellencies, and the intire perfection thereof, are Arguements whereby it doth abundantly evidence it self to be the Word of God; yet notwithstanding, our full perswasion and assurance of the infallible truth, and Divine authority thereof, is from the inward work of the Holy Spirit, bearing witness by, and with the Word, in our hearts l.

V I. The whole Council of God concerning all things necessary for his own Glory, mans salvation, Faith and Life, is either expressly set down in Scripture, or by good and necessary consequence may be deduced from Scripture; unto which nothing at any time is to be added, whether by new revelations of the Spirit, or traditions of men m. Nevertheless we acknowledge the inward illumination of the Spirit of God to be necessary for the saving understanding of such things as are revealed in the Word n: And that there are some circumstances concerning the Worship of God, and Government of the Church, common to humane Actions and Societies, which are to be ordered by the Light of Nature, and Christian Prudence, according to the general Rules of the Word, which are always to be observed o.

(m) 2 Tim. 3. 15, 16, 17. v. 15.] And that from a Child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto Salvation through Faith, which is in Christ Jesus. V. 16.] all Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. V. 17.] that the man of God may be perfect thoroughly furnished unto all good works. Gal. 1. 8, 9. v. 8.] But though we or an Angel from heaven preach any other Gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. V. 9.] as we said before, I say I now again; If any man preach any other Gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. 2 Thess. 2. 2. that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. (n) John 6. 45. It is written in the Prophets, and they shall be all taught of God, every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father commeth unto me. 1 Cor. 2. 9, 10, 11, 12. v. 9.] but as it is written, eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. V. 10.] But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit, for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. V. 11.] for what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. V. 12.] now we have received not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. (o) 1 Cor. 11. 13, 14. v. 13.] Judge in your selves, is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered. V. 14.] doth not even nature it self teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him. 1 Cor. 14. 26, 40. v. 26.] How is it then brethren, when you come together every one of you hath a Psalm, hath a Doctrine, hath a Tongue, hath a Revelation, hath an Interpretation, let all things be done unto edifying. V. 40.] Let all things be done decently and in order.

V II. All things in Scripture are not alike plain in themselves, nor alike clear unto all p: yet those things which are necessary to be known, believed, and observed for salvation, are so clearly propounded and opened in some place of Scripture or other, that not only the Learned, but the unlearned, in a due use of the ordinary means, may attain unto a sufficient understanding of them q.

(p) 2 Per. 3. 16. As also in all his Epistles speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own destruction. (q) Pla.

119. 105, 130. v. 105.] thy word is a Lamp unto my Feet, and a light unto my Path. V. 130.] the entrance of thy words giveth light, it giveth understanding unto the simple.

VIII. The Old Testament in Hebrew (which was the Native Language of the People of GOD of old,) and the New Testament in Greek, (which at the time of the writing of it was most generally known to the Nations) being immediately inspired by God, and by his singular care and Providence kept pure in all Ages, are therefore Authentical; so as in all Controversies of Religion, the Church is finally to Appeal unto them. f. But because these Original Tongues are not known to all the people of God, who have right unto, and interest in the Scriptures, and are commanded in the fear of God, to read and search them, therefore they are to be translated into the Vulgar Language of every Nation unto which they come, that the Word of God dwelling plentifully in all, they may worship him in an acceptable manner; and through patience and comfort of the Scriptures may have hope x.

V. 12. ] Even so ye forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the Church. V. 24. ] But if all Propheste, and there come in one that believes not, or one unlearned, be is convinced of all, he is Judged of all. V. 27. ] If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret. V. 28. ] But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the Church; and let him speak to himself and to God. (w) Col. 3. 16. ## CHAP. III.

Of Gods eternal Degree.

GOD from all eternity, did, by the most wise and Holy Council of his own Will, freely, and unchangeably changeably ordain whatsoever comes to pass a. Yet so, as thereby, neither is God the Author of sin b, nor is violence offered to the will of the Creatures, nor is the Liberty or contingency of second Causes taken away, but rather established c.

(a) Eph. 1. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him, who worketh all things after the Coun-will of his own will. Rom. 11. 33. Oh the depth of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God, how unsearchable are his Judgements, and his wayes past finding out? Heb. 6. 17. Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise, the immutability of his Council, confirmed it by an Oath. Rom. 9. 15, 18, v. 15.] For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. V. 18.] Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardneth. (b) Jam. 1. 13, 17. v. 13.] let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man. V. 17.] Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. 1 John 1 5. This then is the message which we have heard of him and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. (c) Acts 2. 23. Him being delivered by the determinate Council and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. Mar. 17. 12. And I say unto you, that Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed, likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them, Acts 4. 27, 28. v. 27.] For of a truth, against that Holy Child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel were gathered together, V. 28.] For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy Council determined before to be done. John 19. 11. Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above, therefore he that delivered me unto thee, hath the greater sin. Prov. 16 33. The Lot is cast into the lap, but the whole disposing thereof is of the Lord.

II. Although God knows whatsoever may, or can come to pass upon all supposed conditions d, yet hath he not decreed any thing because he foresaw it as future, or as that which would come to pass upon such conditions e.

(d) Acts 15. ] 18. Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. 1 Sam. 23. 11, 12. v. 11.] Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hands, will Saul come down as thy Servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee tell thy servant, and the Lord said he will come down. V. 12.] Then said David, will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul, and the Lord said They will deliver thee up. Matth. 11. 21, 23. v. 21.] Woe unto thee Corazin, woe unto thee Bethsaida, if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre & Sidon, they would have repented long ago in Sack-cloath & Ashes. V. 23.] And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained untill this day. (e) Ro. 9. 11, 13, 16, 18. v. 11.] For the Children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth. V. 13.] As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. V. 16.] So then, it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. V. 18.] Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardneth.

III. By the decree of God, for the manifestation of his glory, so me men and Angels f are predestinated charge thee before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Elect Angels, that thou observe these things, without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. (h) 2 Tim. 2. 19. IV. These Angels and men thus predestinated and fore-ordained, are particularly and unchangeably designed, and their number is so certain and definite, that it cannot be either increased or diminished h.

I speak not of you all, I know whom I have chosen, but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, he that careth bread with me, hath lift up his heel against me.

(i) Eph. 1. 4, 9, 11. V. also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him, who worketh all things after the Council of his will. Ro. 8. 30. Moreover whom he did predestinate them he also called, whom he called, them he also justified, & whom he justified, them he also glorified. 2 Tim. 1. 9. Who hath saved us, & called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose of grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. 1 Thes. 5. 9. V. 20.] Well, because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by Faith, be not high minded but fears 2 Pet. 1. 10. See letter T. immediately foregoing. Rom. 8. 33. Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods Elect? it is God that justifieth Luke 10. 20. Notwithstanding in this joyce, not that the Spirits are subject unto you, but rather rejoyce because your names are written in heaven.

VIII. The doctrine of this high Mystery of Predestination is to be handled with special prudence and care, that men attending the Will of God revealed in his Word, and yielding obedience thereunto, may, from the certainty of their effectual Vocation, be assured of their eternal Election. So shall this Doctrine afford matter of praise, reverence, and admiration of God, and of humility, diligence, and abundant consolation to all that sincerely obey the Gospel.

I V. The Almighty power, unsearchable wisdom, and infinite goodness of God so far manifest themselves in his Providence, that it extendeth it self even to the first Fall, and all other times of Angels and Men.

Men o, and that not by a bare permission p, but such as hath joyned with it, a most wise and powerful bounding q, and otherwise ordering, and governing of them, in a manifold dispensation to his own holy ends r: yet so, as the sinfulness thereof proceedeth only from the creature, and not from God, who being most holy and righteous, neither is, nor can be the Author or Approver of sin.

V. The most wise, righteous, and gracious GOD doth oftentimes leave for a season his own children to manifold temptations, and the corruption of their own hearts, to chastise them for their former sins, or to discover unto them the hidden strength of corruption, and deceitfulness of their hearts, that they may be humbled; and to raise them to a more close and constant dependance for their support upon himself, and to make them more watchful against all future occasions of sin, and for sundry other just and holy ends.

(w) Rom. 1. 24, 26, 28. v. 24. ] Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves. V. 26. ] For this cause

Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

VI. As for those wicked and ungodly men, whom GOD as a righteous Judge, for former sins doth blind and harden, from them he not only withholdeth his grace, whereby they might have been inlightned in their understandings, and wrought upon in their hearts: but sometimes also withdraweth the gifts

which they had y, and exposeth them to such objects as their corruption makes occasions of sin z: and with-all, gives them over to their own lusts, the temptations of the world, and the power of Satan a: whereby it comes to pass that they harden themselves, even under those means, which GOD useth for the softning of others b.

shall be given, and he shall have more abundance, but from him that hath not, shall be taken away even that which he hath. ( z ) Deut. 2. 30. But Sihon King of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for the Lord thy God hardened his Spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day. 2 Kings 8. 12, 13. v. 12. ] And Hazeel said, why weepeth my Lord? and he answered, because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the Children of Israel; their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with Child. ( b ) Exod. 7. 3. And I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiply my Signes, and my wonders in the Land of Egypt. Exod. 8. 15, 32. v. 15. ] But when Pharaoh saw there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said. V. 32. ] And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go. 2 Cor. 2. 15, 16. v. 15. ] For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish. V. 8. ] And a stone of stumbling, and a Rock of offence to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed. Isa. 6. 9, 10. v. 9. ] And he said Go and tell this people, hear ye indeed, but understand not, and see ye indeed, but perceive not. V. 10. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes, lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert and be healed. Acts 28. 26, 27. v. 26. ] Saying, Go unto this people and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand, seeing, ye shall see and not perceive. V. 27. ] For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

VII. As the providence of GOD doth, in general, reach to all Creatures; so after a most speciall manner,

(c) 1 Tim. 4. 10. it taketh care of his Church, and disposeth all things For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of them that believe. Amos 9. 8, 9. v. 8. ] Behold the eyes of the Lord God are upon the finfull Kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth, saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the Lord. For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

OUR first Parents being seduced by the subtilty and temptation of Satan, sinned in eating the forbidden fruit a. This their sin, God was pleased, according to his wise and holy Councill, to permit, having purposed to order it to his own glory b.

(c) Gen. 3. 6, 7, 8. v. 6. ] And when the woman saw the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a Tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her and he did eat. V. 15. ] But not as the offence, so also is the free gift; for it through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. V. 16. And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift, for the Judgement was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto Justification. V. 17. ] For if by one mans offence death reigned by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one Jesus Christ. V. 18. ] Therefore as by the offence of one Judgement came upon all men to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? (u) Matth. 25. 41. Then shall he say also to them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. 2 Thess. 1. 9. ## CHAP. VII.

Of Gods Covenant with man.

THe distance between God and the Creature is so great, that although reasonable Creatures do owe obedience unto him as their Creator, yet they could never have any fruition of him as their Blessedness and reward, but by some voluntary condescension on Gods part, which he hath been pleased to express by way of Covenant a.

judgement, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding? V. 15.] Behold, the nations are as the drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: Behold, he taketh up the lilies as a very little thing. V. 16.] Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering. V. 17.] All nations before him are as nothing, and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity. Job 9. 32, 33. V. 32.] For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgement. V. 33.] Neither is there any days-man betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both. 1 Sam. 2. 25. If one man sin against another, the Judge shall judge him; but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall intreat for him? Psal. 113. 5, 6. V. 5.] Who is like unto the Lord our God who dwelleth on high? V. 6.] Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth. Psal. 100. 2, 3. V. 2.] Serve the Lord with gladness, come before his presence with singing. V. 3.] Know ye that the Lord he is God, it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Job 22. 2, 3. V. 2.] Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself? V. 3.] Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous; or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect? Job 35. 7, 8. V. 7.] If thou be righteous, what givest thou him, or what receiveth he of thine hand? V. 8. Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may profit the son of man. Luke 17. 10. So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all these things which are commanded, you say we are unprofitable servants, we have done that which was our duty to do. Acts 17. 24, 25. V. 24.] God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands. V. 25. Neither is worshipped with mens hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things.

(a) Isa. 40. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17. V. 13.] Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord? or being his counsellor, hath taught him? V. 14.] With whom took he counsel? who instructed him and taught him in the paths of

II. The first Covenant made with man, was a Covenant of Works b, wherein Life was promised to Adam; and in him to his Posterity c, upon condition of perfect and personal obedience d.

(b) Gal. 3. 12. And the Law is not of faith, but the man that doth them shall live in them. (c) Rom. 10. 5. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the Law, that the man which doeth those things, shall live by them. Rom. 5. 12, to 20. See page foregoing, Chap. 6. Letter f. (d) Gen. 2. 17. But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it, for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. Gal 3. 10. For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse, for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.

III. Man by his Fall having made himself incapable of Life by that Covenant, the Lord was pleased to make a second e, commonly called the Covenant of Grace: Wherein he freely offereth unto sinners Life and Salvation by Jesus Christ, requiring of them Faith in Him that they may be saved f; and promising to give unto all those that are ordained unto Life, his holy Spirit, to make them willing, and able to believe g.

(e) Gal. 3. 21. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid; for if there had been a law given, which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. Rom. 8. 3. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh. Rom. 3. 20, 21. V. 20.] Therefore by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin. V. 21.] But now the righteousness of God, without the law, is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets. Gen. 3. 15. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed, it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Isa. 42. 6. I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles. (f) Mark 16. 15, 16. V. 15.] And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. V. 16. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved: but he that believeth not, shall be damned. John 3. 16. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. Rom. 10. 6, 9. V. 6.] But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven, that is to bring Christ down from above. V. 9.] That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Gal. 3. 11. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident, for the just shall live by faith. (g) Ezek. 36. 26, 27. V. 26.] A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. V. 27.] And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgements, and do them. John 6. 44, 45. V. 44.] No man can come unto me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him, and I will raise him up at the last day. V. 45.] It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God, every man therefore that hath heard and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

IV. This Covenant of Grace is frequently set forth in the Scripture by the name of a Testament, in reference rence to the death of Jesus Christ the Testator, and to the everlasting Inheritance, with all things belonging to it, therein bequeathed h. (b) Heb. 9. 15, 16, 17. V. 15:] For this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, ment, that by means of his death for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. V. 16.] For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. V. 17.] For a testament is of force after men are dead, otherwise it is of no strength at all whilst the testator liveth. Heb. 7. 22. By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. Luke 22. 20. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. 1 Cor. 11. 25. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, this do ye as oft as ye drink it in remembrance of me.

V. This Covenant was differently administered in the time of the Law, and in the time of the Gospel: Under the Law it was administered by Promises, Prophecies, Sacrifices, Circumcision, the Paschal Lamb, and other Types & Ordinances delivered to the people of the Jews, all fore-signifying Christ to come, which were for that time, sufficient and efficacious through the operation of the Spirit, to instruct and build up the Elect in Faith in the promised Messiah, by whom they

(i) 2 Cor. 3. 6, 7, 8, 9. V. 6.] Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit, for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. V. 7.] But if the ministration of death written and engraven in stones was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away; V. 8.] How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious? V. 9.] For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. (k) See the 8, 9, 10, Chapters of the Hebrews. Rom. 4. 11. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also. Coloss. 2. 11, 12. V. 11.] In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ. V. 12.] Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him, through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. 1 Cor. 5. 7. Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ the pass-over is sacrificed for us. (l) 1 Corinth. 10. 1, 2, 3, 4. V. 1.] Moreover brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea. V. 2.] And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea. V. 3.] And did all eat the same spiritual meat. V. 4.] And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of the spiritual rock that followed them, and that rock was Christ. Hebr. 11. 13. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. John 8. 56. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad.

(m) Gal. 3. 7,8,9, had full remission of sins, and eternal Salvation: and 14. V.7.] Know ye therefore, that they is called, the Old Testament m.

which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. V.8. And the Scripture foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed: V.9.] So then, they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham. V.14.] That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the spirit through faith.

VI. Under the Gospel, when Christ the substance n, was exhibited, the Ordinances in which this Covenant is dispensed, are the preaching of the Word, and the Administration of the Sacraments, of Baptism, and the Lords Supper o. Which, though fewer in number, and administered with more simplicity, and less outward glory: yet in them it is held forth in more fulness, evidence, and spiritual efficacy p, to all Nations, both Jews and Gentiles q; and is called the V.19.] Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. V.20.] Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. 1 Cor. 11. 23,24,25. V.23.] For I have received of the Lord that which also I have delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, V.24.] And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body, which is broken for you; this do in remembrance of me. V.25.] After the same manner also he took the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. (p) Hebr. 12. 22, 23,24,25,26,27. V.22.] But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels. V.23.] To the generally assembly and Church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect. V.24.] And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. V.25.] See that ye refuse not him that speaketh, for if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth: much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. V.26.] Whose voice then shook the earth, but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth onely, but also the heaven. V.27.] And this word, yet once more signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken, may remain. Jer. 31. 33,34. V.33.] But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people. V.34.] And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, saith the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquities, and I will remember their sin no more. (q) Mar. 28. 19. See letter (o) immediately foregoing. Ephes. 2. 15,16,17,18,19. V.15.] Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments, contained in ordinances, for to make in himself of twain, one new man, so making peace. V.16.] And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body, by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby. V.17.] And came and preached peace to you that were afar off, and to them that were nigh. V.18.] For through him we both have access by one spirit unto the Father. V.19.] Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God.

New Testament r. There are not therefore two Covenants of Grace, differing in substance, but one and the same, under various Dispensations f.

(r) Luke 22. 20. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. (f) Gal 3.14.16. V.14.] That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. V.16.] Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made, he saith not, And to seeds, as of many, but as of one, and to thy seed, which is Christ. Acts 15.11. But we believe, that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved, even as they. Rom. 3. 21,22,23,30. V.21.] But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets. V.22.] Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ, unto all, and upon all them that believe, for there is no difference. V.23.] For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. V.30.] Seeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Psal 32.1. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, and whose sin is covered. Rom. 4.3,6,16,17,23,24: V.3.] For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. V.6. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works. V.16.] Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace, to the end the promise might be sure, to all the seed, not to that onely which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. V.17.] As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations, before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were. V.23.] Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him. V.24.] But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead. Heb.13.8. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us, wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

II. The Son of God, the second Person in the Trinity, being very and eternal God, of one substance, & equal with the Father, did, when the fulness of time was come, take upon him mans nature k, with all the Essential properties, and common infirmities thereof, yet, without sin l: being conceived by the Power of the Holy Ghost in the womb of the Virgin Mary, of her substance m. So that, two whole, perfect, and distinct Natures, the God-head and the Man hood, were inseparably joyned together in one Person, without

And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness, unto the judgement of the great day. 2 Pet. 2. 4. For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down into hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgement.

V. The Lord Jesus, by his perfect obedience and sacrifice of himself, which he, through the eternal Spirit, once offered up unto God, hath fully satisfied the justice of his Father k; and purchased, not only reconciliation, but an everlasting inheritance in the Kingdom of Heaven, for all those whom the Father hath given unto him l.

of Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge the conscience from dead works, to the living God? V. 16.] For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. Heb. 9. 10. 14. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Eph. 5. 2. V I. Although the work of Redemption was not actually wrought by Christ till after his Incarnation, yet the vertue, efficacy, and benefits thereof were communicated unto the Elect in all ages successively from the beginning of the world, in and by those Promises, Types, and Sacrifices, wherein he was revealed, and signified to be the seed of the Woman, which should bruise the Serpents head : and the Lamb slain from the beginning of the World : being yesterday, and to day the same, and for ever nz.

(m) Gal. 4. 4, 5. V. 4.] But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his son

Heb. 13. 8. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

VII. Christ, in the work of Mediation, acteth according to both Natures, by each Nature doing that which is proper to it self n : yet by reason of the unity of the Person, that which is proper to one Nature, is sometimes in Scripture attributed to the Person denominated by the other Nature o.

(n) Heb. 9. 14. See letter (k) Scripture the second, 1 Pet. 3. 18. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the un-

VIII. To all those for whom Christ hath purchased Redemption, he doth certainly and effectually apply, and communicate the same p, making intercession for them q, and revealing unto them, in, and by the Word,

And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

CHAP. IX.

Of Free-will.

GOD hath indued the Will of man with that natural liberty, that is neither forced, nor by any absolute necessity of nature determined to do good or evil a.

(a) Mat. 17. 12. But I say unto you, that Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed, likewise also shall the son of man suffer of them. James 1. 14. But every man is tempted when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Deut 30. 19. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing, therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live.

II. Man, in his state of Innocency, had freedom, and power, to will, and to do that which was good, and well-pleasing to God b; but yet, mutably, so that he might fall from it c.

(b) Eccles. 7. 29. Lo this onely have I found, that God hath made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions. Gen. 1. 26. And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness, and let him have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the air, and over the cattel, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. (c) Gen. 2. 16, 17. V. 16.] And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree in the garden thou mayest freely eat. V. 17.] But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat, for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die. Gen. 3. 6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

III. Man by his fall into a state of sin, hath wholly lost all ability of Will to any spiritual good accompanying salvation d: so as, a natural man, being altogether averse from that good e, and dead in sin f, is not able, by his own strength, to convert himself, or to prepare himself thereunto g.

(d) Rom. 5. 6. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. Rom. 8. 7. Because the carnal minde is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. John 15. 5. I am the vine, ye are the branches, he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit, for without me ye can do nothing. (e) Rom. 3. 10, 12. V. 10.] As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one V. 12.] They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth good, no not one. (f) Ephes. 2. 1, 5. V. 1.] And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. V. 5.] Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, by grace ye are saved. Col. 2. 13. And you being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses. (g) John 6. 44, 65. V. 44.] No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him, and I will raise him up at the last day. V. 65.] And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. Ephes. 2. 2, 3, 4, 5. V. 2.] Wherein in times past we walked, according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. V. 3.] Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lust of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, as others. V. 4.] But God who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, V. 5. Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, by grace ye are saved. 1 Cor. 2. 14. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. Titus 3. 2, 4, 5. V. 3.] For we our selves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envie, hatefull, and hating one another. V. 4.] But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, V. 5.] Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghost.

IV. When God converts a sinner, and translates him into the state of grace, he freeth him from his natural bondage bondage under sin h; and by his grace alone, inables him freely to will, and to do that which is spiritually good i; yet so, as that by reason of his remaining corruption, he doth not, perfectly, nor onely, will that which is good, but doth also will that which is evil k.

For it is God that worketh in you both to will and to do, of his good pleasure. Rom. 6.18,22. V.18. ] Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. For the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh, and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. Rom. 7.15,18,19,21,23. V.15. ] For that which I do, I allow not, for what I would, that do I not, but what I hate, that do I. V.18. ] For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing, for to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good, I finde not. V.19. ] For the good that I would, I do not, but the evil which I would not, that I do. V.21. ] I finde then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me. V.23. ] But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my minde, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin, which is in my members.

V. The will of man is made perfectly, and im- mutably free to good alone, in the state of Glory onely l.

(l) Eph. 4.13. Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Heb. 12.23. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know, that when he shall appear, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Jude 24. Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory, with exceeding joy.

V. 18.] Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

For the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh, and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. 1 Pet. 2.11. Dearly beloved, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.

Of saving Faith.

(a) Heb. 10. 39. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them who believe, to the saving of the soul. THe grace of Faith, whereby the Elect are inabled to believe to the saving of their souls a, is the work of the Spirit of Christ in their hearts b; and is ordinarily wrought by the Ministry of the Word c: by which also, and by the administration of the Sacraments, and Prayer, it is increased and strengthened d.

(b) 2 Cor. 4. 13. We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believe, and therefore have I spoken, we also believe, and therefore speak. Eph. 1. 17, 18, 19. V. 17. ] That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom, and revelation, in the knowledge of him. V. 18. ] The eyes of your understanding being enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. V. 19. ] And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power. Eph. 2. 8. For by grace are ye saved, through faith, and that not of your selves, it is the gift of God. (c) Rom. 10. 14, 17. V. 14. ] How then shall they call on him, in whom they have not believed, and how shall they believe in him, of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? V. 17. ] So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. (d) 1 Peter 2. 2. As new born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. Acts 20. 32. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. Rom. 4. 11. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also. Luke 17. 5. And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. Rom. 1. 16, 17. V. 16. ] For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. V. 17. ] For therein is the righteousness of God revealed, from faith to faith, as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

II. By this Faith, a Christian beleeveth to be true, whatsoever is revealed in the Word, for the authority of God himself speaking therein e; and acteth differently upon that which each particular passage thereof containeth; yeelding obedience to the Commands f, trembling at the threatnings g, and imbracing the promises of God for this life, and that which is to come h. But the principall acts of saving faith, are, Accepting, Receiving, and Resting upon Christ alone for Justification, Sanctification, and Eternal Life, by vertue of the Covenant of Grace i.

when ye received the Word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it, not as the Word of Men, but as it is in truth, the Word of God which effectually worketh also in you that beleve. 1 John 5.10. He that beleeveth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself, he that beleeveth not, God hath made him a lyer, because he beleeveth not the record that God gave of his Son. Acts 24.14. But this I confesse unto thee, that after the way which they call heresie, so worship I the God of my Fathers, beleiving all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets. (f) Rom. 16. 26. But now is made manifest, and by the Scriptures of the Prophets, according to the Commandement of the everlasting God, made known to all Nations, for the obedience of faith. (g) Isa. 66.2. For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the Lord God, but to this man will I look, Even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my words. (h) Heb. 11.13. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them a far off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were Strangers and Pilgrims on the Earth. 1 Tim. 4.8. For bodily exercise profiteth little, but godlinesse is profitable unto all things, having the promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. (i) Joh. 1.12. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the Sons of God, even to them that beleve on his name. Acts 16.31. And they said, Beleve on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved and thy house. Gal. 2.20. I am crucified with Christ, neverthelesse I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me, and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Acts 15.11. But we belevee that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.

III. This Faith is different in degrees, weak, or strong k; may be often and many wayes assailed, and weakened, but gets the victory l; growing up in maturity m. (k) Heb. 5. 13, 14. V. 13. For every one that useth Milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness, for he is a Babe. V. 14. And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadnesse of Sarahs womb. V. 20. He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelceff, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God. Matthew 6.30. Wherefore if God so cloath the grass of the field which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more cloath you, O ye of little faith? Mar. 8. 10. When Jesus heard it he marvelled and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel. (l) Luke 22.31, 32. V. 31. And the Lord said Simon, Simon, Behold Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat. V. 32. But I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not, and when thou art converted strengthen thy brethren. Ephel. 6.16. Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. 1 Joh. 5. 45, V. 4. For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. V. 5. Who is he that overcometh the world but he that beleeveth that Jesus is the Son of God?

Of Repentance unto life.

(a) Ezech. 12. 10. And I will poure upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace, and of supplications, and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him as one mourneth for his onely Sou, and shall be in bitterness as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. Acts 11. 18. When they heard these things they held their peace, and glorified God saying, Then hath God also unto us granted repentance unto life. (b) Luke 24. 47. II. By it, a Sinner, out of the sight and sense, not only of the danger, but also of the filthinesse and odiousnesse of his sins, as contrary to the holy nature, & righteous Law of God; and, upon the apprehension of his mercy in Christ to such as are penitent, so grieves for, and hates his sins, as to turn from them all

Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way. 2 Cor. 7. 11. For behold, this self same thing that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulnesse it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge: in all things ye have approved your selves to be clear in this matter. (d) Psalm 119. 6. 59, 106. III. Although Repentance be not to be rested in as any satisfaction for sin, or any cause of the pardon thereof e, which is the act of Gods free grace in Christ f, yet is (e) Ezek. 36. 31, 32,

Rom. 5. 12. Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.

(h) Rom. 6. 23. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 5. 12. V I. As every man is bound to make private confession of his sins to God, praying for the pardon thereof; upon which, and the forsaking of them, he shall find mercy m: so he that scandalizeth his Brother, or the Church of Christ, ought to be willing by a private or publick confession, and sorrow for his sin, to declare his repentance to those that are offended n, who are thereupon to be reconciled to him, and in love to receive him o.

And that they may be inabled thereunto, besides the graces they have already received, there is required an actuall influence of the same holy Spirit, to work in them to will and to do, of his good pleasure n: yet are they not hereupon to grow negligent, as if they were not bound to perform any duty, unless, upon a special motion of the Spirit; but, they ought to be diligent in stirring up the grace of God that is in them o.

I I. This certainty is not a bare conjectural and probable perswasion, grounded upon a fallible Hope

Hope; but an infallible assurance of faith, founded (e) Heb. 6. 11. 19. V. 11.] And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end. V. 19.] Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, & which encreaseth into that within the veil. (f) Heb. 6. 17, 18. V. 17.] Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath. V. 18.] That by two invariable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us. (g) 2 Peter 1. 4, 5, 10, 11. V. 4.] Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises, that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. V. 5.] And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue, and to virtue knowledge. V. 10.] Wherefore the rather brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure, for if ye do these things ye shall never fall. V. 11.] For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. 1 John 2:3. And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 1 John 3:14. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren; he that loveth not his brother abideth in death. 2 Cor. 1. 12. For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards. (h) Rom. 18. 5, 16. V. 15.] For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear, but ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. V. 16.] The spirit it self beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God. (i) Eph. 3. 13, 14. V. 13.] Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. V. 14.] For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Eph. 4. 30. And grieve not the holy spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. 2 Cor. 1. 21, 22 V. 21.] Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God. V. 22.] Who hath also sealed us, and given us the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.

III. This infallible assurance doth not so belong to the essence of faith, but that a true believer may wait long, and conflict with many difficulties, before he be partaker of it k: yea, being inabled by the Spirit to know the things which are freely given him of God, he may, without extraordinary revelation, in the

And straight way the Father of the child cryed out, and said with tears, Lord I believe, help thou my unbelief. See Psalm 88. throughout, and Psalm 77. to the 12. verse.

IV. True beleevers may have the assurance of their salvation divers wayes shaken, diminished, and intermitted, as, by negligence in preserving of it, by falling into some special sin, which woundeth the conscience, and grieveth the Spirit; by, some sudden, or vehement temptation, by Gods withdrawing the light of his countenance, and suffering even such as fear him to walk in darkness and to have no light p: yet are they never utterly destitute of that seed of God, and life of faith, that love of Christ and the brethren, that sincerity of heart, and conscience of duty, out of which, by the operation of the Spirit, this Assurance may, in due time, be revived q; and by the which, in

CHAP. XIX.

Of the Law of God.

(1) Gen. 1. 2, 6, 27.] GOD gave to Adam a Law, as a Covenant of Works, by which he bound him, and all his posterity, to personall, entire, exact, and perpetual obedience; promised life upon the fulfilling, and threatened death upon the breach of it: and indued him with power and ability to keep it a.
 And God said, Let us make man in our Image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the Sea, and over the fowl of the aire, and over the cattell, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. V. 27. So God Created man in his own Image, in the Image of God Created he him; Male and Female Created he them. Gen. 2. 17.] But of the Tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat; in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely dye. Rom. 2. 14, 15. V. 14.] For when the Gentiles which have not the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Law, these having not the Law, are a Law unto themselves; V. 15.] Which shew the work of the Law written in their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another. Ro. 10. 5.] For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the Law, that the man which doth those things, shall live by them. Rom. 5. 12, 19. V. 12.] Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. V. 19.] For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners; so by the obedience of one, shall many be made righteous. Gal. 3. 10, 12. V. 10.] For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse; for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth nor in all things, which are written in the Book of the Law, to do them. V. 12.] The law is not of Faith; but, the man that doth them, shall live in them. Eccl. 7. 29.] Loe this only have I found, that God hath made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions. Job 28. 28.] And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding.

II. This Law, after his fall, continued to be a perfect rule of righteousness, and, as such, was delivered by God upon Mount Sinai, in ten Commandments, and written in two Tables b: the four first Commandments containing our duty towards God; and the other six, our duty to man a.

(b) Jam: 1. 25.] But who so looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and contineth therein, he being not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. Jam.

2. 8, 10, 11, 12. V. 8.] If ye fulfill the royall law, according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self, ye do well. V. 10.] For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. V. 11.] For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also Do not kill; now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressour of the law. V. 12.] So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. Rom. 13. 8, 9. V. 8.] Owe no man any thing, but to love one another; for he that loveth another, hath fulfilled the law. V. 9.] For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet, & if there be any other Commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self. Deut. 5. 32.] Ye shall observe to do therefore, as the Lord your God hath commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right hand, or to the left. Deut. 10. 4.] And he wrote on the Tables, according to the first writing, the ten Commandments, which the Lord spake unto you in the Mount, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly; and the Lord gave them unto me. Excd. 34. 1.] And the Lord said unto Moses, Hew thee two Tables of Stone, like unto the first; and I will write upon these Tables, the words which were in the first Table, which thou brakest. (c) Mat. 22. 37, 38, 39, 40. V. 37.] Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, V. 38.] This is the first and great Commandment. V. 39.] And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self, V. 40.] On these two Commandments, hang all the Law and the Prophets.

III. Beside this Law, commonly called Moral, God was pleased to give to the people of Israel, as a Church under age, Ceremonial Laws, containing several typical Ordinances, partly of Worship, prefiguring Christ, his graces, actions, sufferings, and benefits d; and partly, holding forth divers instructions of moral duties e.

(d) Heb. 9. Chap: Heb. 10. 1.] For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very Image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto perfect. Gal. 4. 1, 2, 3. V. 1.] Now I say, that the heir as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be Lord of all. V. 2.] But is under tutors and governours, untill the time appointed of the Father. V. 3.] Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. Col. 2. 17.] Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ. (e) 1 Cor. 5. 7.] Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened; for even Christ our Passeeover is sacrificed for us. 2 Cor. 6. 17.] Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, & touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you. Jude vers. 23.] And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garments spotted by the flesh.

V. 17.] Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ. Dan. 9. 27, &c.] He shall confirm the Covenant with many for one week; and in the midst of the week, he shall cause the sacrifice, and the oblation to cease; and for the overspreading of abominations, he shall make it desolate, even untill the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate. V. 14.] Or unto Governours, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evill doers, and for the praise of them that do well. Mat. 5. 17, 38, 39. V. 38.] Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. V I. Although true Believers be not under the Law, as a Covenant of Works, to be thereby justified, or condemned l; yet is it of great use to them, as well as to others; in that, as a Rule of life informing them of the will of God, & their duty, it directs, & binds them to walk accordingly m; discovering also the sinful pollutions of their nature, hearts and lives n; so as, examining themselves thereby, they may come to further conviction of, humiliation for, and hatred against sin o; together with a clearer sight of the need they

Of Christian Liberty, and Liberty of Conscience.

THe Liberty which Christ hath purchased for Believers under the Gospel, consists in their freedom from the guilt of sin, the condemning Wrath of God,

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purifie unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. 1 Thel. 1. 10.] And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us from wrath to come. Gal. 3. 13.] Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a Tree. (b) Gal. 1. 4.] Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evill world, according to the will of God, and our Father. Col. 1. 13.] Who hath delivered us from the power of darknes; and hath translated us into the Kingdom of his dear Son. Act 26. 18.] To open their eyes, and to turn them from darknes to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Rom. 6. 14.] For sin shall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under the Law, but under grace. (c) Rom. 8. 28.] We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. V. 55.] O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? V. 56.] The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the Law. V. 57.] But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. 8. 1.] There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. (d) Rom. 5. 1, 2. V. 15.] For ye have not received the Spirit of bondage again to fear, but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry Abba Father. 1 Joh. 4. 18. there is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment; he that feareth, is not made perfect in love. V. 30.] So the people rested on the seventh day. Exod. 31. 15, 16, 17. V. 15.] Six dayes may work be done, but in the seventh day, is the Sabbath of rest holy to the Lord: whosoever doth any work in the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. V. 16.] Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual Covenant. V. 17.]

It is a sign between me, and the children of Israel for ever : for in six dayes , the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. Isa. 58. 13.] If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable, and shalt honour him, nor doing thine own wayes, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words. V. 19.] And it came to pass, That when the Gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the Gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened; till after the Sabbath; and some of my servants set I at the Gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day. V. 21.] Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you, from that time forth, they came no more on the Sabbath. ### Of lawfull Oathes and Vows.

(a) Deut. 10. 20.] Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God : him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name. A Lawfull Oath is a part of Religious Worship, wherein, upon just occasion, the person swearing solemnly calleth God to witness what he asserteth, or promiseth; and to judge him according to the truth of falsehood of what he sweareth b.

(b) Exod. 20. 7.] Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain : for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his name in vain. Lev. 19. 12.] And thou shalt not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou prophane the name of thy God : I am the Lord. 2 Cor. 1. 23.] Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you, I came not as yet unto Corinth. 2 Chron. 6. 21, 23. V. 22.] If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine Altar in this house. V. 23.] Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiring the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head, and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

II. The Name of God onely, is that by which men ought to swear; and, therein it is to be used with all holy fear and reverence c. Therefore, to swear vainly, or rashly, by that glorious and dreadfull Name; or, to swear at all, by any other thing, is sinfull, and to be abhorred d. Yet, as in matters of weight and moment, an Oath is warranted by the word of God, under the New Testament, as well as under the old e; so, a lawfull Oath, being imposed by lawfull Authority, in such matters ought to be taken f.

red Adultery, and assembled themselves by Troops, in the Harlots houses. Mat. 5. 34, 37. V. 34.] But I say unto you, Swear not at all, neither by heaven, for it is Gods throne. V. 37.] But let your communication, be yea, yea; nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than this cometh of evil. Jam. 5. 12.] Above all things my brethren, swear nor, neither by heaven, neither by earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea: and your nay, nay: left ye fall into condemnation. (e) Heb. 6. 16.] For men verily swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation, is to them an end of all strife. 2 Cor. 1. 23. See letter B. Isa. 65. 16.] That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bles himself in the God of truth: and he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth: because the former troubles, are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes. (f) 1 King. 8. 31.] If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him, to cause him to swear, and the oath come before rhine Altar in this house. Neh. 13. 25.] And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their Sons, nor take their daughters unto your Sons, or for your selves. Ezra 10. 5.] Then arose Ezra, and made the Chief Priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear, that they should do according to this word: and they sware.

III. Whosoever taketh an Oath, ought duly to consider the weightiness of so solemn an Act; and therein to avouch nothing, but what he is fully persuaded is the truth g. Neither may any man binde himself by Oath to any thing, but what is good and just, and what he believeth so to be, and what he is able, and resolved to perform h. Yet it is a sin, to re-

(c) Deut. 6. 13.] Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shall swear by his name. (d) Exod. 20. 7.] See Letter B. Jer. 5: 7.] How shall I pardon thee for this? Thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no Gods; when I fed them to the full, they then committed Adultery, and assembled themselves by Troops, in the Harlots houses. Mat. 5. 34, 37. V. 34.] But I say unto you, Swear not at all, neither by heaven, for it is Gods throne. V. 37.] But let your communication, be yea, yea; nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than this cometh of evil. Jam. 5. 12.] Above all things my brethren, swear nor, neither by heaven, neither by earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea: and your nay, nay: left ye fall into condemnation. (e) Heb. 6. 16.] For men verily swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation, is to them an end of all strife. 2 Cor. 1. 23. See letter B. Isa. 65. 16.] That he who blesseth himself in the earth, shall bles himself in the God of truth: and he that sweareth in the earth, shall swear by the God of truth: because the former troubles, are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes. (f) 1 King. 8. 31.] If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him, to cause him to swear, and the oath come before rhine Altar in this house. Ezra 10. 5.] Then arose Ezra, and made the Chief Priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear, that they should do according to this word: and they sware.

V. 3.] And I will make thee swear by the Lord the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my Son, of the daughters of the Canaanites, amongst whom I dwell. V. 5.] And the servant said unto him, peradventure the women will not be willing to follow me unto this land, must I needs bring thy Son again unto the Land, from whence thou camest? V. 6.] And Abraham said unto him beware thou, that thou bring not my Son thither again. V. 8.] And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be free from this my Oath, only bring not my Son thither again. V. 9.] And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his Master, and swore to him concerning that matter.

thr by an oath, and ay unto the woman, if no man hath lyen with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleaneſſ with another inſtead of thine husband, be thou free from this bitter water that cauſeth the curſe. V. 21.] Then the Priest ſhall charge the woman with an oath of curſing; and the Priest ſhall ſay unto the woman, the Lord make thee a curſe, and an oath among the people, when the Lord doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to ſwell. Neh. 5. 12.] Then ſaid they, we will reſtore them, and will require nothing of them; ſo will we do as thou ſayeſt, then I called the Priests, and took an oath of them, that they ſhould do according to this promiſe. Exod. 22. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11. V. 7.] If a man ſhall deliver unto his neighbour money, or ſtuff to keep, and it be ſtolen out of the mans houſe, if the thief be found, let him pay double. V. 9.] For all manner of treſpaſs, whether it be for Ox, for Aſſe, for Sheep, for Rayment, or for any manner of loſt things, which another challengeth to be his: the cauſe of both parties ſhall come before the Judges, and whom the Judges ſhall condemn, he ſhall pay double unto his neighbour. V. 10.] If a man deliver unto his neighbour an Aſſe, or an Ox, or a Sheep, or any beaſt to keep, and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man ſeeing it. V. 11.] Then ſhall an oath of the Lord be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbours goods: and the owner of it, ſhall accept thereof, and he ſhall not make it good,

IV. An Oath is to be taken in the plain and common ſenſe of the words, without equivocation, or mentall reſervation k. It cannot oblige to ſin: but, in any thing not ſinfull, being taken, it binds to performance, although to a mans own hurt l. Nor is it to be violated, although made to hereticks, or Infidels m.

(k) Jer 4. 2. See Letter G. Pſal. 24. 4.] He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart, who hath not liſt up his ſoul unto vanity, nor ſworn deceitfully.

V. 34.] For in very deed, as the Lord God of Iſrael liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadſt halted and come to meet me, ſurely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light, any that piſſeth againſt the wall. Pſal. 15. 4.] In whoſe eyes, a vile perſon is contemned; but he honoureth them that feer the Lord, he that ſweareth to his own hurt, and changeth nor. (m) Ezek. 17. 16, 18, 19. V. 16.] As I live ſaith the Lord God, Surely in the place where the King dwelleth, that ma him King, whoſe oath he diſpiſed, and whoſe Covenant he brake, even with him, in the miſt of Babylon he ſhall die. V. 18.] Seeing he deſpiſed the oath by breaking the Covenant (when lo he had given his hand) and hath done all theſe things, he ſhall not eſcape. V. 19.] Therefore thus ſaith the Lord God, As I live, ſurely mine oath that he hath diſpiſed, and my Covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompenſe upon his own head. Joſ. 9. 18, 19. It is not to be made to any Creature but to God alone: and, that it may be accepted, it is to be made voluntarily, out of faith, and conscience of duty, in way of Thankfulness for mercy received, or for the obtaining of what we want; whereby we more strictly bind our selves to necessary duties; or, to other things, so far, and so long, as they may fitly conduce thereunto p.

of the Civill Magistrate.

GOD the supreme Lord and King of all the world hath ordained Civill Magistrates to be under him over the people, for his own Glory, and the publick good;

good; and to this end hath armed them with the power of the Sword for the defence and encouragement of them that are good, and for the punishment of evil doers a.

II. Marriage was ordained for the mutual help of Husband and Wife b, for the increase of Mankind with a legitimate issue, and of the Church with an holy seed c, and for preventing of uncleanness d.

And did not he make one? that had the residue of the Spirit: and wherefore one? that he might seek a godly seed: therefore take heed to your Spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. (d) 1 Cor. 7. 2, 9. V. 2.] Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. V. 9.] But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

(b) Gen. 2. 18.] And the Lord God said, that the man should be alone; I will make him a help meet for him. (c) Mal. 2. 15.]

III. It is lawfull for all sorts of people to marry who are able with judgement to give their consent e. Yet is it the duty of Christians to marry onely in the Neh. 13. 25, 26, 27. V. 25.] And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their Sons, nor take their daughters into your Sons, or for your selves. V. 26.] Did not Solomon, Kings of Israel sin by these things ? Yet among many Nations, was there no King like him, who was beloved of his God ; and God made him King over all Israel : nevertheles even him, did out-landish women cause to sin. V. 17.] Shall we then hearken unto you, to do as this great evil, to transgress against our God, in marrying strange wives. Mal. 2. 11, 12. V. 11.] Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel, and in Jerusalem : for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the Lord which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. CHAP. XXVI.

Of the Communion of Saints.

ALL Saints, that are united to Jesus Christ their Head, by his Spirit, and by Faith, have fellowship with him in his graces, sufferings, death, resurrection, and

V. 16. ] From whom the whole body fitly joyed together, and compacted by that, which every joynt supplyeth, according to the effectually working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of it self in love. 1 Cor. 12. 7. ] But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withall. 1 Cor. 3. 21, 22, 23. Gal. 6. 10. ] As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of thould of Faith.

II. Saints by profession are bound to maintain a holy fellowship and Communion in the Worship of God ; and in performing such other spiritual Services as tend to their mutuall Ddificatio on d: as also in relieving each other in outward things, according to their several abilities, and necessities. Which communion, as God offereth opportunity, is to be extended unto all those, who, in every place call upon the Name of the Lord Jesus e.

together, as the manner of some is: but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the day approaching. Act. 2. 42, 46. V. 42.] And they continued stedfastly in the Apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayer. V. 46.] And they continued daily with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness, and singleness of heart. Isa. 2. 3.] And many people shall go and say, come ye, and let us go up to the Mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the Law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. 1 Cor. 11. 20.] When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lords Supper. (e) Act. 2. 44, 45. V. 44.] And all that believed were together, and had all things common. V. 45.] And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. 1 Joh. 3. 17. See in Letter C. 2 Cor. 8. and 9. Chapters. See in the Bible. Act. 11. 29, 30.] Then the Disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea. V. 30.] Which also they did, and sent it to the Elders by the hands of Barnabas, and Saul.

III. This Communion which the Saints have with Christ, doth not make them, in any wise, partakers of the substance of his Godhead, or to be equal with Christ in any respect: either of which to affirm, is impious, and blasphemous f. Nor doth their Communion one with another, as Saints, take away, or infringe the title or propriety which each man hath in his goods and possessions g.

all fulness dwell. 1 Cor. 8. 6.] But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him, and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. Isa. 42. 8.] I am the Lord, that is my name, and my glory will I not give to another; neither my praise to graven Images. 1 Tim. 6. 15, 16. V. 15.] Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords. V. 15.] Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light, which no man can approach unto, whom no man hath seen, or can see, to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen. Psal. 45. 7.] Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God thy God hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladness above thy fellows. Heb. 1. 8, 9. V. 8.] But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne O God is for ever and ever, a Scepter of righteousness, is the Scepter of thy kingdom. V. 9.] Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladness above thy fellows. (g) Exod. 20. 15. Thou shalt not steal. Eph. 4. 28.] Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his own hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Act. 5. 4.] Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God,

Of the Sacraments.

(a) Rom. 4: 11.] And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the Faith which he had, yet being uncircumcised, that he might be the Father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also. Gen. 17. 7, 10. V. 7.] And I will establish my Covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting Covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. V. 10.] See below in Letter F. (b) Mat. 28. 19.] Go ye therefore, and teach all Nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. 1 Cor. 11. 23.] For I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread. (c) 1 Cor. 10. 16.] The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? the bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 1 Cor. 11. 25, 26. V. 25.] After the same manner, also he took the cup when he had supped, saying, this cup is the New Testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. V. 26.] For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lords death till he come. Gal. 3. 7.] And this I say, That the Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannull, that it should make the promise of none effect. (d) Rom. 15. 8.] Now I say, That Jesus Christ was a Minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the Fathers. Exod. 12. 48.] And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the Passover to the Lord, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come neer and keep it, and he shall be as one that is born in the land; for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. Gen. 34. 14.] And they said unto them, we cannot do this, to give our Sister to one that is uncircumcised: for that were a reproach unto us. (e) Rom. 6. 3, 4. V. 3.] Know ye not that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death? V. 4.] Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead, by the glory of the Father: even so we also should walk in newness of life. 1 Cor. 10. 16, 21. V. 16.] See in Letter C. V. 21.] Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lords Table, and of the Table of devils.

II. There is in every Sacrament a spiritual relation, or Sacramental union between the Sign and the Thing signified: whence it comes to pass, that the name names and the effects of the one are attributed to the other f. (f) Gen. 17. 10.] This is my Covenant which ye shall keep between me & you, and thy seed after thee, every man-child among you shall be circumcised, Mat. 26. 27, 28. V. 27.] And he took the cup and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it. V. 28.] For this is my blood of the New Testament which is shed for many, for the remission of sins. Tit. 3. 5.] Not by workes of righteousnesse which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost.

III. The grace which is exhibited in, or by the Sacraments rightly used, is not conferred by any power in them: neither doth the efficacy of a Sacrament depend upon the piety or intention of him that doth administer it g; but upon the work of the Spirit h, and the word of institution; which containes, together with a Precept authorizing the use thereof, a promise of Benefit to worthy receivers i.

(g) Rom. 2. 28, 29. V. 28.] For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh. V. 29.] But he is a Jew which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men but of God. 1 Pet. 3. 21.] The like figure whereunto, even Baptism, doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. (b) Matth. 3. 11.] I indeed baptise you with water unto Repentance, but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptise you with the Holy Ghost and with fire. 1 Cor. 12. 13.] For by one spirit we are all baptised into one body, whether we be Jewes or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free: and have been all made to drink into one spirit. (i) Matth. 26. 27, 28.] See in letter (f) Matth. 28. 19, 20.] V. 19. See letter (b) V. 20.] Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway unto the end of the world, Amen.

IV. There be onely two Sacrament ordained by Christ our Lord in the Gospel; that is to say, Baptism and the Supper of the Lord: neither of which may be dispensed by any, but by a Minister of the Word lawfully ordained k.

(k) Matth. 28. 19.] Go ye therefore & teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. 1 Cor. 11.

20, 23. V. 20.] When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord supper. V. 23.] For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread. 1 Cor. 4. 1.] Let a man so account of us, as of the Ministers of Christ, and Stewards of the mysteries of God. Heb. 5. 4.] And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

(d) 1 Cor. 10. 1, 2, 3, 4 V. 1.] Moreover brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our Fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea. V. 2.] And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea. V. 3.] And did all eat the same spiritual meat. V. 4.] And did all drink the same spiritual drink, (for they drank of that spiritual rock that followed them, and that rock was Christ.)

V. The Sacraments of the Old Testament, in regard of the spiritual things thereby signified and exhibited, were, for substance, the same with those of the New.

Baptism is a Sacrament of the New Testament, ordained by Jesus Christ a, not only for the solemn Admission of the party baptized into the visible Church b: but also to be unto him a sign and seal of the Covenant of Grace c, of his ingrafting into Christ d, of Regeneration e, of Remission of sins f, and of his giving up unto God through Jesus Christ, to walk in newness of life g. Which Sacrament is by Christs own appointment to be continued in his Church until the end of the World h.

II. The outward Element to be used in this Sacrament is Water, wherewith the Party is to be Baptized, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, by a Minister of the Gospell lawfully called thereunto i.

(i) Mat. 3. 11.] I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but he that cometh after me, is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with Fire. Mat. 28. 19, 20. V. 19.] see letter K. V. 20.] see in letter H.

III. Dipping of the person into the Water is not necessary: but Baptism is rightly administred by pouring or sprinkling Water upon the person k.

Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Act. 16. 33.] And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptized he and all his streight way. Mar. 7. 4.] And when they come from the market, except they wash they eat not, and many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups and pots, brazen vessels, and of tables.

IV. Not onely those that do actually profess faith in, and obedience unto Christ, but also the Infants of one, or both believing Parents, are to be baptized m.

(l) Mar. 16. 15, 16. V. 15.] And he said unto them, Go ye into all the World, and preach ye the Gospel to every creature. V. 16.] He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Act. 8. 37, 38. V. 37.] And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart thou mayest, and he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. V. 38.] And he commanded the Charter to stand still, and they went down both into the water, both Philip, and the Eunuch, and he baptized him. (m) Gen. 17. 7, 9. V. 9.] And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my Covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee, in their generations. Gal. 3. 9, 14. V. 9.] So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham. V. 14.] That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles, through Jesus Christ: that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Col. 2. 11, 12. uncircumcised. [1 Cor. 7. 14.] For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband, else were your children unclean, but now they are holy. V. 13.] And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them, and his Disciples rebuked those that brought them. V. 14.] But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeas'd, and said unto them. Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of God. V. 15.] Verily I say unto you, Who soever shall not receive the Kingdom of God, as a little child, he shall not enter therein. V. 16:] And he took them up in his arms, put his hand upon them, and blessed them. Luk. 18. 15.] And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them; but when his Disciples saw it they rebuked them.

V. Although it be a great sin to contemn or neglect

(n) Luk. 7. 30.] But this Ordinance n, yet Grace and Salvation are not so the Pharisees and Lawyers rejected inseparably annexed unto it, as that no person can be the counsel of God regenerated or saved without it o: or, that all that are against themselves, being not baptized are undoubtedly regenerated p. of him. ## CHAP. XXIX.

Of the LORDS Supper:

Our Lord Jesus, in the night wherein he was betrayed, instituted the Sacrament of his Body and Blood, called the Lords Supper, to be observed in his Church unto the end of the World, for the perpetual Remembrance of the Sacrifice of Himself, in his Death; the sealing all benefits thereof unto the Believers, their Spiritual nourishment and growth in him, their farther engagement in, and to all duties which they ow unto him; and to be a bond, and pledge of their Communion with him, and with each other, as members of his mystical Body a.

(a) 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24, 25, 26. V. 23.] For I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread. V. 24.] And when he had given thanks he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. V. 25.] After the same manner also, he took the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood: this do ye as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. V. 26.] For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lords death till he come. 1 Cor. 10. 16, 17, 21. V. 16.] The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? the bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? V. 17.] For we being many are one bread and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. V. 21.] Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of Devils, ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of Devils. 1 Cor. 12. 13.] For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

. II. In this Sacrament Christ is not offered up to his Father; nor any real Sacrifice made at all, for remission of sin of the quick or dead b, but onely a Commemoration of that one offering up of Himself, by Himself, upon the Cross, once for all: and a spiritual oblation of all possible praise unto God, for the same c: So

(b) Heb. 9. 22, 25, 26, 28. V. 22.] And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: & without shedding of blood there is no remission. V. 25.] Nor yet shall he should offer himself often, as the high Priest entereth into the holy place every year with the blood of others. V. 26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world. But now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin, by the sacrifice of himself. V. 28.] So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many, and unto those that look for him shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation (c) 1 Cor. 11. 24, 25, 26. see them in Genes 6. 18. V. 25, 26, 17. V. 25.] And as they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the Disciples, and said, Take, eat, this is my body. V. 27.] And he took the cup and gave it to them, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it.

(d) Heb. 7. 23, 24, 27. Verſ. 23.] And they truly were many Priests, becauſe they were not ſuffered to continue by reaſon of death.

V. 24.] But this man, becauſe he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable prieſt-hood. tended religious use, are all contrary to the nature of this Sacrament, and to the institution of Christ :

(j) Mat. 25. 9. ] - But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the Commandments of men.

V. The outward Elements in this Sacrament, duly set apart, to the uses ordained by Christ, have such relation to him crucified, as that truly, yet Sacramentally onely, they are sometimes called by the name of the things they represent, to wit, the Body, and Blood of Christ k, albeit in substance and nature, they still remain, truly, and onely Bread and Wine, as they were before l.

(k) Mat. 26. 26, 27, 28. Verf. 26. ] And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, & blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the Disciples and said,

Take, eat, this is my body. Verf. 27. ] And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it. Verf. 28. ] For this is my blood of the New Testament which is shed for many, for the remission of sins. (l) 1 Cor. 11. 26, 27, 28. Verf. 26. ] For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lords death till he come. Verf. 27. ] Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. Verf. 28. ] But let a man examin himself, and so let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup. Mat. 26. 29. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Fathers kingdom.

VI. That Doctrine which maintaines a change of the substance of Bread and Wine, into the substance of Christs Body and Blood, (commonly called Transubstantiation) by consecration of a Priest, or by any other way, is repugnant, not to Scripture alone, but even to common Sense and Reason ; overthroweth the nature of the Sacrament, and hath been, and is the cause of manifold Superstitions ; yea of grosse Idolatries m.

(m) Acts. 3. 21. ] Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, w<sup>ch</sup> God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy Prophets, since the world began. 1 Cor. 11. 24, 25, 26. Ver. 24. ] And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you, this do in remembrance of me. Verf. 25. ] After the same manner also, he took the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the New Testament in my blood, this do ye as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. Verf. 25. ] See letter L. Luke 24. 6, 39. Verf. 6. ] He is not here, but is risen, remember how he spake unto you, when he was in Galilee. Verf. 39. ] Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I my self, handle me, and see, for a Spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

the visible Elements, in this Sacrament n, do then also inwardly by faith, really and indeed, yet not carnally and corporally, but Spiritually receive, and feed upon Christ crucified, and all benefits of his death: The Body and Blood of Christ being then, not corporally or carnally, in, with, or under the Bread and Wine; Yet as really, but Spiritually, present to the Faith of Beleevers in that Ordinance, as Elements themselves are to their outward senses o.

Ver. 29. ] For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lords body. 2 Cor. 6. 14, 15. VIII. Although ignorant and wicked men receive the outward Elements in this Sacrament; yet they receive not the thing signified thereby: but by their unworthy coming thereunto, are guilty of the Body and blood of the Lord, to their own damnation. Wherefore, all ignorant and ungodly persons, as they are unfit to enjoy communion with him, so are they unworthy of the Lords Table; and cannot without great sin against Christ, while they remain such, partake of these holy Masteries p, or be admitted thereunto q.

Ver. 7. ] Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened, for even Christ our pasche is sacrificed for us. Ver. 13. ] But them that are without, God judgeth. Therefore put away from among your selves that wicked person. 2 Thess. 3. 6, 14, 15. Ver. 6. ] Now we command you, Brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw your selves from every Brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. Ver. 14. ] And if any man obey not our word by this Epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Ver. 15. ] Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a Brother. Matth. 7. 6. ] Give not that which is holy unto the Doggs, neither cast your pearles before swine, lest they trample them under their Feet, and turn again and rent you.

of Church Censures.

THe Lord Jesus, as King and Head of his Church, hath therein appointed a Government, in the hand of Church Officers, distinct from the Civil Magistrate a.

(a) Isa. 9. 6, 7. V. 6.]
For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called wonderfull, counsellour, the mighty God, the everlasting father, the prince of peace. V. 7.] Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end; upon the throne of David, and upon his Kingdom to order it, and to establish it with judgement, and with justice, from henceforth even for ever: the zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. 1 Tim. 5. 17.] Let the elders that rule well, be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. 1 Thess. 5. 12.] And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you. Act. 20. 17, 18. V. 17.] And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Church. V. 18.] And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons. Heb. 13. 7, 17, 24. V. 7.] Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God, whose faith follow, considering the end of the conversation. V. 17.] Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit your selves, for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief, for that is unprofitable for you. V. 24.] Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints; they of Italy salute you. 1 Cor. 12. 28.] And God hath set some in the Church: first Apostles, secondarily Prophets, thirdly Teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Mat. 28. 18, 19, 20. V. 18.] And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. V. 19.] Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. V. 20.] Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world, Amen.

II. To these Officers the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven are committed; by vertue whereof they have power respectively to retain, and remit sins; to shut that Kingdom against the impenitent, both by the Word, and Censures; and to open it unto penitent sinners by the Ministry of the Gospel, and by Absolution.

(b) Mat. 16. 19.] Iution from Censures, as occasion shall require b.

And I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven. Mat. 18. 17, 18. V. 17.] And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the Church; but if he neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican. V. 18.] Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven. Joh. 20. 21, 22, 23. V. 21.] Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you, as my father hath sent me, even so send I you. V. 22.] And when he had laid this, he breathed on them, and said unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost. V. 23.] Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. 2 Cor. 2. 6, 7, 8. V. 6.] Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. V. 7.] So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. V. 8.] Wherefore I beseech you, that you would confirm your love towards him.

III. Church Censures are necessary for the reclaiming and gaining of offending Brethren, for deterring of others from the like offences, for purging out of that Leaven which might infect the whole Lump, for vindicating the honour of Christ, and the holy profession of the Gospel, and for preventing the wrath of God, which might justly fall upon the Church, if they should suffer his Covenant and the Seals thereof to be profaned by notorious and obstinate offenders c.

(c) 1 Cor. 5. Chap. throughout, see in the Bible. 1 Tim.

5. 20.] Them that sin, rebuke before all, that others also may fear. Mat. 7. 6.] Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rent you. 1 Tim. 1. 20.] Of whom is Hymeneus, and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme. 1 Cor. 11. 27. to the end, see in the Bible. Jude V. 23.] And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire: hating even the garments spotted by the flesh.

IV. For the better attaining of these ends, the Officers of the Church are to proceed by Admonition, Suspension from the Sacrament of the Lords Supper for a season; and by Excommunication from the Church, according to the nature of the crime, and demerit of the person d.

(d) 1 Theff. 5. 12.]

And we beseech you brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you. 2 Theff. 3. 6, 14, 15. V. 6.] Now we command you brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw your selves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. V. 14.] And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. V. 15.] Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. 1 Cor. 5. 4, 5, 13. V. 4.] In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, V. 5.] To deliver such a one unto Satan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. V. 13.] But them that are without, God judgeth; therefore put away from among your selves that wicked person. Mat. 18. 17.] And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it to the Church: but if he shall neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican. Tit. 3. c.] A man that is an heretick, after the first and second admonition, reje. ct.

Of Synods and Councils.

FOR the better Government, and farther edification of the Church; there ought to be such Assemblies as are commonly called Synods or Councils a.

(a) Act. 15. 2, 4, 6. V. 2. ] When therefore Paul, and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul, and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the Apostles, and Elders, about this question. V. 4. ] And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the Church, and of the Apostles, and Elders; and they declared all things that God had done with them. V. 6. ] And the Apostles and Elders came together, for to consider of this matter.

I I. As Magistrates may lawfully call a Synod of Ministers and other fit persons to consult and advise with, about matters of Religion b : So, if Magistrates be open Enemies to the Church, the Ministers of Christ, of themselves, by vertue of their Office; or they, with other fit persons, upon delegation from their Churches, may meet together in such Assemblies c.

Of the last Judgement.

GOD hath appointed a day wherein he will judge the World in righteousness by Jesus Christ, to whom all Power and Judgement is given of the Father. 1 Cor. 6.3.] Know ye not that we shall judge the Angels, how much more things that pertain to this life? Jude Verse 6.] See letter D. Chapter foregoing. 2 Pet 2. 4.] For if God spared nor the Angels that sinned, but cast them down to Hell, and delivered them into chains of darknesse, to be reserved unto Judgement. Rom. 2.16.] In the day when God shall judge the secrets of Men by Jesus Christ, according to my Gospel. Rom. 4.10,12. II. The End of Gods appointing this Day, is for the manifestation of the glory of his Mercy, in the eternal salvation of the Elect; and of his Justice, in the damnation of the Reprobate, who are wicked and disobedient. For then shall the righteous go into everlasting Life, and receive that fulnesse of Joy and Refreshing which shall come from the presence of the Lord: but the Wicked, who know not God, and obey not the Gospel of Jesus Christ, shall be cast into eternal torments, and be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his Power e.

An ORDINANCE of the Lords and Commons in Parliament, for the Calling of an Assembly of Learned and Godly Divines and others, to be consulted with by the Parliament, for the setting the Government and Liturgy of the Church of England, and for vindicating and clearing of the Doctrine of the said
Church from false Aspersions and Interpretations,

Whereas amongst the infinite blessings of Almighty God upon this Nation, none is, or can be more dear unto us, then the purity of our Religion, and that for as yet many things remain in the Liturgy, Discipline, and Government of the Church, which do necessarily require a further and more perfect Reformation, then as yet hath been attained: And whereas it hath been declared and resolved by the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, That the present Church Government by Archbishops, their Chancellors, Commissaries, Deans, Deans and Chapters, Archdeacons, and other Ecclesiastical Officers depending upon the Hierarchy, is evil and justly offensive and burthensome to the Kingdom, a great impediment to reformation and growth of Religion, and very prejudicial to the State and Government of this Kingdom, and that therefore they are resolved that the same shall be taken away, and that such a Government shall be settled in the Church, as may be most agreeable to Gods holy Word, and most apt to procure and preserve the Peace of the Church at home, and neerer agreement with the Church of Scotland, and other reformed Churches abroad, and for the better effecting hereof, and for the vindicating, and clearing of the Doctrine of the Church of England, from all false calumnies and aspersions, It is thought fit and necessary to call an Assembly of learned, godly, and judicious Divines, who together with some members of both the Houses of Parliament are to consult and advise of such matters and things, touching the premises, as shall be proposed unto them by both or either of the Houses of Parliament, and to give their advice and counsel therein, to both or either of the said Houses, when and as often as they shall be thereunto required. Be it therefore ordained by the Lords and Commons

Quest. What is the chief and highest end of man?

Ans<sup>r</sup>. Mans Chief and Highest End, is, to glorifie God <sup>a</sup>, and fully to enjoy him for ever <sup>b</sup>.

<sup>a</sup> Rom. 11. 36. For of him, and through him, and to him are all things, to whom be glory for ever, Amen. <sup>1</sup> Cor. 10. 31. Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>b</sup> Psal. 73. 24. to the end. Thou shalt guide me with thy counsels, and afterwards receive me to glory; Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none on earth that I desire besides thee. My flesh and my heart fail, but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. For lo, they that are far from thee shall perish, thou shalt destroy all them that go a whoring from thee; but it is good for me to draw nigh to God; I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy works. John 17. 21, 22, 23. That they all may be one as thou Father art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me; and the glory which thou gavest me have I given them, that they may be one, even as we are one, I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

Quest. How doth it appear, that there is a God?

Ans<sup>r</sup>. The very light of Nature in man, and the works of God, declare that there is a God <sup>c</sup>, but his Word

<sup>c</sup> Rom. 1. 19, 23. Because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them, for God hath shewed it unto them; For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world, are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse. Psal. 19. 1, 2, 3. The heavens declare the glory of God, and the Firmament sheweth his handy-work. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth Knowledge. There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard. Acts 17. 28. For in him we live, and move, and have our being.

4 1 Cor. 2, 9, 10. But and Spirit only, do sufficiently, and effectually reveal him unto men for their salvation <sup>d</sup>. as is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, the things that God hath prepared for them that love him: But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit, for the Spirit searcheth all the deep things of God. 2 Tim. 3, 15, 16, 17. And that from a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. Isai. 59, 21. As for me, this is my Covenant with thee, saith the Lord, my Spirit which is upon thee, and my words which I have put into thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seeds seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever.

<sup>e</sup> 2 Tim. 3, 16. All Scripture is given by inspiration. 2 Pet. 1, 19, 20. We have also a more sure word of Prophecy, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts. V. 20.] Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. V. 21.] For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 1 Eph. 2, 20. And are built upon the foundation of the Apostles, and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. Rev. 22, 18, 19. For I testify unto every man, that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book. V. 19.] And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this Prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. Isai. 8, 20. To the Law and to the Testimony, if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Luke 16, 29, 31. They have Moses and the Prophets, let them hear them: if they believe not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead. Gal. 1, 8, 9. But though we or an Angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you: let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other Gospel unto you, than that ye have received, let him be accursed. 2 Tim. 3, 15, 16. Before.

Q. What is the Word of God?

A. The Holy Scriptures of the old and new Testament are the Word of God <sup>e</sup>, the only rule of Faith and Obedience <sup>f</sup>.

Q. How doth it appear that the Scriptures are the word of God?

<sup>f</sup> Moses 8, 1, 2. I have written to them the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing. 1 Cor. 2, 6, 7, 13. Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect, yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the Princes of this world, that come to nought, but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory. Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. Psalm 119, 18, 129. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wonderful things out of thy law. The Testimonies are wonderful therefore doth my soul like pishan. <sup>g</sup> Psalm 124, 6. The words of the Lord are pure words, as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Psalm 124, 140. Thy word is very pure, therefore thy servant loveth it.

A. The Scriptures manifest themselves to be the word of God by their Majesty <sup>g</sup>, and Purity <sup>h</sup>, by the consent of all the parts <sup>i</sup>, and the scope of the whole, which is to give all glory to God <sup>k</sup>; by their light and power to convince and convert sinners, to comfort and build up believers to salvation. <sup>l</sup> but the Spirit of bearing witness by and with the Scriptures in the heart of man, is alone able fully to persuade it that they are the very word of God <sup>m</sup>.

day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things then those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come. <sup>k</sup> Rom. 3. 19. Now we know that what things soever the Law saith, it saith to them who are under the Law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the World become guilty before God. <sup>l</sup> Act. 18. 28. For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly shewing by the Scripture that Jesus was Christ. Heb. 4. 12. For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper then any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Jam. 1. 18. Of his own will begat he us, with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures. Psal. 119. 7, 8, 9. The Law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple: the statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightning the eyes: the fear of the Lord is clear, enduring for ever: the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether. Rom. 15. 4. For whatsoever things were written afore time, were written for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Acts 20. 32. And now Brethren I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. <sup>m</sup> Job. 16. 13, 14. Howbeit when He the Spirit of Truth is come, He will guide you into all Truth, for He shall not speak of himself, but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak, and He will shew you things to come. <sup>n</sup> 1 John 2. 20, 27. But ye have an anction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. V. 27. But the anointing which ye have received of Him, abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you, but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you ye shall abide in him. John 20. 31. But these are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing ye might have life through his name.

Q. What do the Scriptures principally teach?

A. The Scriptures principally teach, what man is to believe concerning God, and what duty God requires of man <sup>n</sup>.

words, which thou hast heard of me, in Faith and Love which is in Christ Jesus.

Q. What do the Scriptures make known of God?

A. The Scriptures make known what God is <sup>o</sup>, the Persons in the Godhead <sup>p</sup>, the Decrees <sup>q</sup>, he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. <sup>p</sup> 1 John 5. 7. For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost, and these three are One. <sup>q</sup> Act. 15. 14, 15, 18. Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name V. 15. And to this agree the words of the Prophets as is written V. 18. Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the World.

Acts 4. 27, 28. For and the execution of His Decrees : of a truth against the holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate with the Gentiles and the people of Israel were gathered together. V. 28.] For to do whatsoever thy hand, and thy counsel determined before to be done.

Job 4. 24. God is a Spirit, and they that and Truth. Exo.

unto Moses I am that

Amen. Job. 10. 30. I and my Father are one.

Q. What are the personal properties of the three Persons in the Godhead ?

A. It is proper to the Father to beget the Son<sup>m</sup>, and to the Son to be begotten of the Father<sup>n</sup>, and to the Holy Ghost to proceed from the Father and Son from all eternity<sup>o</sup>.

<sup>m</sup> Heb. 1. 5, 6--8. For unto which of the Angels said he at any time, Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to me a Son. And again when he brings in the first begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the Angels of God worship him — But unto the Son be said, Thy Throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of thy Kingdom. <sup>n</sup> John 1. 14, 18. And the word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. — No man hath seen God at any time: The only begotten Son which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. <sup>o</sup> John 15. 26. But when the Comforter is come whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of Truth which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. Gal. 4. 6. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

Q. How doth it appear that the Son and the Holy Ghost are God equal with the Father ?

A. The Scriptures manifest, that the Son and the Holy Ghost are God equall with the Father, ascribing unto them such names<sup>p</sup>, attri-

This compared with Iob. 12. 41. These things said Esaias, when he saw His glory, and spake of Him. And with Act. 28. 25. And when they agreed not among themselves they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet to our Fathers. 1 Iob. 5. 20. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his son Jesus Christ; this is the true God and eternal life. Act. 5. 2, 4. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thy heart, thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

Q. What are the Decrees of God?

A. God's Decrees are the wise, free, and holy acts of the counsel of his will, whereby from all eternity, he hath for his own glory, unchangeably fore-ordained whatsoever comes to pass in time, especially concerning Angels and men.

<sup>1</sup> Eph. 4. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Rom. 11. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments and his wayes past finding out! Rom. 9. 14, 15, 18. What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. — Therefore he hath mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. <sup>2</sup> Eph. 1. 4, 11. According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. — In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him, who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Rom. 9. 22, 23. What if God, willing to show his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction, and that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had before prepared unto glory? Psal. 33. 11. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever; the thoughts of his heart unto all generations.

Q. What hath God especially decreed concerning Angels and men?

A. God by an eternal and immutable decree, out of his meer love, for the praise of his glorious grace to be manifested in due time, hath elected some Angels to glo-

* Eph. 1. 4, 5, 6. According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundations of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love, having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ, to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. 2 Th 1. 2, 3, 14. But we are bound to give thanks to God alway for you, Brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth; whereunto he called you by the Gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ: Y Rom 9. 17, 18—21, 22 For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh, even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.— Hath not the Potter power over his clay of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour and another unto dishonour? What if God willing to shew his wrath and to make his power known; endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction? Math. 11. 25, 26. At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and Earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and the prudent, and hast revealed them unto Babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. 2 Tim. 2. 20. But in a great house there are not onely vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some to honor and some to dishonor. Luke 9. 4. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of God into wantonness, denying the only God and our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. 2. 8. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence to them that stumble at the word being disobedient, wherunto also they were appointed.

Q. How doth God execute his Decrees?

A. God executeth his Decrees in the works of Creation and Providence; according to his infallible foreknowledge, and the free and immutable counsel of his own will z.

z Eph. 1. 11. In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him, who worketh all things according to the counsel of His own Will.

Q. What is the work of Creation?

A. The work of Creation is that, wherein God did in the beginning, by the word of his power, make of nothing, the World and all things therein, for himself, within the space of six dayes, and all very good a.

a Gen. 1. 1, 2, 3. Through which we understand that the Worlds were framed, by the word of God; so that things which are seen, were not made of things which do appear. Prov. 16. 4. The Lord hath made all things for himself, yea even the wicked for the day of evil.

Q. How did God create Angels ?

<sup>b</sup> Col. 1. 16. For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him. <sup>c</sup> Psal. 104. 4. Who maketh his Angels Spirits, his Ministers a flame of fire. <sup>d</sup> Math. 22. 30. For in the Resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the Angels of God in heaven. <sup>e</sup> Matt. 25. 31. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit upon the Throne of his glory. <sup>f</sup> 2 Sam. 14. 17. Then thine handmaid said, the word of my Lord the King shall now be comfortable: for, as an Angel of God, so is my Lord the King, to discern good and bad; therefore the Lord thy God will be with thee. Matt. 24. 35. But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the Angels of heaven, but my Father onely. <sup>g</sup> 2 Thes. 1. 7. And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty Angels. <sup>h</sup> Psal. 103. 20, 21. Bless the Lord, ye his Angels, that excell in strength, and do his commandments, hearkning to the voice of his word. Bless the Lord all ye his hosts, ye Ministers of his that do his pleasure. <sup>i</sup> 2 Pet. 2. 4. For if God spared not the Angels that sinned, but cast them down to Hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness to be reserved unto judgment. —

Q. How did God create Man ?

A. After God had made all other creatures, He created man male and female<sup>k</sup>, formed the body of the man of the dust of the ground<sup>l</sup>, and the woman of the rib of the man<sup>m</sup>, indued them with living, reasonable, and immortal souls<sup>n</sup>, made them after his own image<sup>o</sup>, in knowledge<sup>p</sup>, righteousness, and holiness<sup>q</sup>, having the Law of God written in their hearts<sup>r</sup>, and power to fulfil it<sup>s</sup>, with dominion over the creatures.

<sup>k</sup> Gen. 1. 27. So God created man in His own Image, in the Image of God created He him; male and female created He them. <sup>l</sup> Gen. 2. 7. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life. <sup>m</sup> Gen. 2. 22. And the rib which the Lord had taken from man, made He a woman, and brought her unto the man. <sup>n</sup> Gen. 2. 7. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul. Compare this with Iob 35. 11. Who teacheth us more then the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser then the fowles of heaven. And with Ecc. 12. 7. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was, and the Spirit shall return to God who gave it. And with Matt. 10. 28. Fear not them who can kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both body and soul in hell. And with Luke 23. 43. And Jesus said unto him, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradise. <sup>o</sup> Gen. 1. 27. So God created man in His own Image, in the Image of God created He him, male and female created he them. <sup>p</sup> Col. 3. 10. And have put on the new man which is renewed in knowledge, after the Image of Him that created him. <sup>q</sup> Eph. 4. 24. And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. <sup>r</sup> Rom. 2. 14, 15. For when the Gentiles, who have not the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Law; these having not the Law are a Law unto themselves; which shew the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another. <sup>s</sup> Ecc. 7. 29. Lo, this onely have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply and replenish the earth; and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowle of the aire, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. <sup>u</sup> Gen. 3. 6. Q. What are Gods works of Providence?

Q. what is Gods Providence towards the Angels?

A. God by his Providence permitted some of the Angels, wilfully and irrecoverably to fall into sin, and damnation<sup>c</sup>, limiting and ordering that, and all their sins to his own glory<sup>d</sup>, and established the rest in holinesse and happiness in everlasting chains, under darkness, unto the judgement of the great day. <sup>c</sup> Jude v. 6. And the Angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, under darkness, unto the judgement of the great day. <sup>d</sup> 2 Pet. 2. 4. For if God spared not the Angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness to be reserved unto judgment— Heb. 2. 16. For verily he took not on him the nature of Angels, but he took on him the seed of Abraham. John 8. 44. Ye are of your father the Devils; and the lusts of your father ye will do; he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him; when he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father of it. <sup>a</sup> Job 1. 12. And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold all that he hath is in thy power, onely upon himself put not forth thy hand; so Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord. Matt. 8. 31. And the Devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the heard of swine.

Q. What was the Providence of God toward man in the estate wherein he was created ?

A. The Providence of God toward man in the estate wherein he was created, was, the placing him in Paradise, appointing him to dresse it, giving him liberty to eat of the fruit of the earth<sup>h</sup>, putting the creatures under his dominion<sup>i</sup>, and ordaining marriage for his help<sup>k</sup>, affording him communion with himself<sup>l</sup>, instituting the Sabbath<sup>m</sup>, entring into a covenant of life with him, upon condition of personal, perfect, and perpetual obedience<sup>n</sup>, of which the Tree of Life was a pledge<sup>o</sup>, and forbidding to eat of the Tree of knowledge of

Q. Did man continue in that estate wherein God at first created him?

A. Our first Parents being left to the freedom of their own will, through the temptation of Satan, transgressed the commandment of God, in eating the forbidden fruit, and thereby fell from the estate of Innocency, wherein they were created <sup>q</sup>.

<sup>q</sup> Gen. 3. 6, 7, 8. — 13. And when the woman saw the tree was good

And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden, in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord amongst the trees of the garden— V. 13.] And the Lord God said unto the woman, what is this that thou hast done? and the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. Q. Did all mankind fall in that first Transgression?

A. The Covenant being made with Adam as a publick person, not for himself onely, but for his posterity, all mankind descending from him by ordinary generation <sup>r</sup>, sinned in him and fell with him in that first transgression <sup>f</sup>.

<sup>r</sup> Aft. 17. 26. And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on

And the Lord commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou maist freely eat; but of the tree of knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat of it; for on the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. Compared with Rom. 5. from v. 12. to v. 20. Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned— V. 18.] Therefore as by the offence of one, judgment came upon all to condemnation; even so— V. 19.] For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners: so by the obedience &c.— And with 1 Cor. 15. 21, 22. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die; even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

Q. Into what estate did the fall bring mankind?

A. The Fall brought mankind into an estate of sin and misery <sup>r</sup>.

and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: Rom. 3. 23. For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God:

Q. What is sin?

A. Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of any Law of God, given as a rule to the reasonable creature.

* 1 Joh. 3.4. Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth also the Law; for sin is the transgression of the Law. Gal. 3. 10--12. For as many as are of the works of the Law, are under the curse; for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the Law to do them— And the Law is not of faith; but the man that doth them shall live in them.

Q. Wherein consisteth the sinfulness of that estate wherinto man fell?

A. The sinfulness of that estate wherinto man fell consisteth in the guilt of Adam's first sin*, the want of that righteousness wherein he was created, and the corruption of his nature, whereby he is utterly indisposed, disabled, and made opposite unto all that is spiritually good, and wholly inclined to all evil, and that continually*, which is commonly called Original sin, and from which do proceed all actual transgressions.

* Rom. 5. 12--19. Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned— V. 19.] For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one man shall many be made righteous. * Rom. 3. from v. 10. to v. 20. As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one. V. 11.] There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. V. 12.] They are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become unprofitable, there is none that doth good no not one. V. 13.] Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of asps is under their lips. V. 14.] Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. V. 15.] Their feet are swift to shed blood. V. 16.] Destruction and misery are in their ways. V. 17.] And the way of peace have they not known. V. 18.] There is no fear of God before their eyes. V. 19.] Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Eph. 2. 1, 2, 3. And you hath he quickened who were dead in trespasses and sins; wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of the world, according to the Prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience; Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Rom. 8. 7, 8. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be, so then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Gen. 6. 5. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. * Jam. 1. 14, 15. But every man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin, and sin when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Matt. 15. 19. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false-witness, blasphemies.

Q. How is Original sin conveyed from our first Parents unto their posterity?

A. Original sin is conveyed from our first Parents unto unto their posterity by natural generation, so as all that proceed from them in that way, are conceived and born in sin<sup>z</sup>.

<sup>z</sup> Psal. 51. 5. Behold I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Job 14. 4. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. Job 15. 14. What is man that he should be clean, and he that is born of a woman that he should be righteous? Job 3. 6. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit.

Q. What misery did the Fall bring upon mankind?

A. The Fall brought upon mankind the loss of communion with God<sup>a</sup>, his displeasure and curse, so as we are by nature children of wrath<sup>b</sup>, bond-slaves to Satan<sup>c</sup>, and justly liable to all punishments in this world, and that which is to come<sup>d</sup>.

<sup>a</sup> Gen. 3. 8—10—24. And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day; and Adam

Q. What are the punishments of sin in this world?

Q. What are the punishments of sin in the world to come?

A. The punishments of sin in the world to come, are everlasting separation from the comfortable presence

Q. Doth God leave all mankind to perish in the estate of sin, and misery?

A. God will not leave all men to perish in the estate of sin and misery p, into which they fell by the breach of the first Covenant, commonly called the Covenant of works q, but of his meer love and mercy, delivereth his elect out of it, and bringeth them into an estate of salvation by the second Covenant, commonly called the Covenant of Grace r.

Q. With

Q. with whom was the Covenant of Grace made?

A. The Covenant of Grace was made with Christ, as the second Adam, and in him, with all the elect as his seed <sup>c</sup>.

Q. How is the grace of God manifested in the second Covenant?

A. The grace of God is manifested in the second Covenant, in that he freely provideth, and offereth to sinners a Mediator <sup>c</sup>, and life and salvation by him; <sup>u</sup> and requiring faith as the condition to interest them in him, * promiseth and giveth his holy Spirit <sup>x</sup>, to all his elect to work in them that faith <sup>y</sup>, with all other saving graces <sup>z</sup>, and to enable them unto all holy obedience <sup>a</sup>, as the evidence of the truth of their faith <sup>b</sup> and thankfulness to God, <sup>c</sup> and as the way which he hath appointed to salvation <sup>d</sup>.

Q. Was the Covenant of Grace alwaies administred after one and the same manner ?

A. The Covenant of Grace was not alwaies administred after the same manner, but the administrations of it under the Old Testament, were different from those under the New <sup>e</sup>.

V. 9.] For if the ministration of condemnation be glorious, how much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory ?

Q. How was the Covenant of Grace administred under the Old Testament ?

A. The Covenant of Grace was administred under the Old Testament, by Promises <sup>f</sup>, Prophecies <sup>g</sup>, Sacrifices <sup>h</sup>, Circumcision <sup>i</sup>, the Passeeover <sup>k</sup>, and other Types and Ordinances, which did all fore-signifie Christ then to come, and were for that time sufficient to build up the Elect in faith in the promised Messiah <sup>l</sup>, by whom they then had full remission of sin, and eternal salvation <sup>m</sup>.

Q. How is the Covenant of Grace administred under the New Testament ?

A. Under the New Testament, when Christ the substance was exhibited, the same Covenant of Grace

Grace was and still is to be administred in the preaching of the word <sup>n</sup>, and the administration of the Sacraments of Baptisme <sup>o</sup>, and the Lord's Supper <sup>p</sup>, in which Grace and salvation is held forth in more fulness, evidence, and efficacy, to all Nations <sup>q</sup>.

Q. Who is the Mediator of the Covenant of Grace?

A. The onely Mediator of the Covenant of Grace is the Lord Jesus Christ <sup>r</sup>, who being the eternal Son of God; of one substance and equal with the Father <sup>s</sup>, in the fulness of time became man <sup>t</sup>, and so was and continues to be God and Man in two entire distinct natures, and one person for ever <sup>u</sup>.

<sup>r</sup> 1 Tim. 2. 5. For there is one God, and one Mediatour between God and Man, the Man Christ Jesus. <sup>s</sup> Joh. 1. 1. — 14. In the beginning was the word; and the word was with God, and the word was God — V. 14. ] And the word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the onely begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. Joh. 10. 30. I and my Father are one. Phil. 2. 6. Who being in the form of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God. <sup>t</sup> Gal. 4. 4. But when the fulness of time was come, God sent forth his Son made of a woman, made under the Law. <sup>u</sup> Luke 1. 35. And the Angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God. Rom 9. 5. Whose are the Fathers, and of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever, Amen. Col. 2. 9. For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. Heb. 7. 24, 25. But this man because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable Priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

Q. How did Christ, being God, become Man?

A. Christ the Son of God became Man by taking * Joh. 1. 14. And the word was made flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the to himself a true body, and a reasonable soul *, being conceived by the power of the Holy Ghost, in the womb of the Virgin Mary, of her substance, and born of her *, yet without sin y.

Father, full of grace and truth. Matt. 26. 38. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me. * Luk. 1. 27—31—35—42. To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the Virgins name was Mary— V. 31. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name, Jesus— V. 35. And the Angel answered and said unto her, the Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God ——— And [ Elizabeth ] spake out with a loud voice and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. Gal. 4. 4. But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his son made of a woman, made under the law. y Heb. 4. 15. For we have not an High Priest which cannot be touched with a feeling of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Heb. 7. 26. For such an High-Priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens.

Q. Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be God ?

A. It was requisite that the Mediator should be God, that he might sustain and keep the humane nature from sinking under the infinite wrath of God, and the power of death, give worth and efficacy to his sufferings, obedience, and intercession<sup>a</sup>, and so satisfy God's justice<sup>b</sup>, <sup>a</sup> Act. 2. 24, 25. Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death; because it was not possible he should be holden of it. Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect, he became the author of everlasting salvation unto all that obey him. Heb. 9. 11. to the 16. But Christ being come an High Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building. [V. 13.] For if the blood of Bulls and of Goats, and the ashes of an Heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh; [V. 14.] How much more shall the blood of Christ who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to serve the living God? [V. 15.] And for this cause he is the Mediator of the New Testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first Testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

Q. Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be Man?

A. It was requisite that the Mediator should be Man, that he might advance our nature <sup>h</sup>, perform obedience <sup>h</sup> Heb. 2. 16. For verily he took not on him the nature of Angels, to the law <sup>i</sup>, suffer, and make intercession for us in our nature <sup>k</sup>, have a fellow-feeling of our infirmities <sup>l</sup>, but he took on him the seed of Abraham. that we might receive the adoption of sons <sup>m</sup>, and have <sup>i</sup> Gal. 4. 4. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is the Devil. Heb. 7. 24, 25. But this man because he continueth for ever, hath an unchangeable Priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. <sup>l</sup> Heb. 4. 15. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Q. why was it requisite that the Mediator should be God and Man in one person?

A. It was requisite that the Mediator, who was to reconcile God and man should himself be both God and man, and this in one person, that the proper works of each nature might be accepted of God for us, and relied on by us, as the works of the whole person P.

Q. Why was our Mediator called Jesus?

A. Our Mediator was called Jesus, because he saveth his people from their sins.

1 Matt. 1. 21. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sinnes.

Q. Why was our Mediator called Christ?

A. Our Mediator was called Christ, because he was anointed with the Holy Ghost above measure, and so set apart, and fully furnished with all authority and ability, to execute the offices of Prophet, Priest,

1 Job. 3. 24. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God; for God giveth

And he began to say unto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears. 1 Heb. 5. 5, 6, 7.

So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an High Priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek; who in the dayes of his flesh when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong cries and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared. Heb. 4. 14, 15. Seeing then that we have a great High Priest that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not so a High Priest that can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an High Priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. Phil. 3. 9.— And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

Q. How is Justification an act of Gods free Grace?

A. Although Christ by his Obedience and Death, did make a proper, real, and full satisfaction to Gods Justice, in the behalf of them that are justified, yet, in as much as God accepteth the satisfaction from a Surety, which he might have demanded of them, did us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. V. 9.] Much more then being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. V. 10.] For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled shall we be saved by his life— V. 19.] For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

V. 19.] To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them, and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Rom. 4. 6, 7, 8. Even as David also describes the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, V. 7.] Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Q. What is justifying Faith?

A. Justifying Faith is a saving Grace<sup>i</sup>, wrought in the heart of a Sinner by the Spirit<sup>k</sup> and word of God<sup>l</sup>, whereby he, being convinced of his sin and misery, and of the disability in himself and all other creatures to recover him out of his lost condition<sup>m</sup>, not onely assenteth to the truth of the promise of the Gospel<sup>n</sup>, but receiveth and resteth upon Christ and his righteousness therein held forth, for pardon of sin<sup>o</sup>, and for the accepting and accounting of his person righteous in the sight of God for salvation<sup>p</sup>.

<sup>l</sup> Rom. 10. 14. How then shall they call on him, on whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? <sup>m</sup> Act. 2. 37. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their hearts, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do to be saved? <sup>n</sup> Act. 16. 30. And brought them out, and said, Sirs, What must we do to be saved? <sup>o</sup> Job. 16. 8, 9. And when he is come he will convince the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment. Of sin, because they believe not in me — <sup>p</sup> Rom. 5. 6. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>q</sup> Eph. 1. 1. And you hath he quickned, who were dead in trespasses and sins. <sup>r</sup> Act. 4. 12. Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. <sup>s</sup> Eph. 1. 13. In whom ye also trusted after that ye heard the word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation, in whom also after ye believed ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise. <sup>t</sup> Job. 1. 12. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. <sup>u</sup> Act. 16. 31. And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved and thine house. <sup>v</sup> Act. 10. 43. To him give all the Prophets witness, that through his name, whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. <sup>w</sup> Phil. 3. 9. And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness which is by the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. <sup>x</sup> Act. 15. 11. But we believe that through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.

Q. How doth Faith justify a Sinner in the sight of God?

A. Faith justifies a sinner in the sight of God, not because of those other graces which do alwaies accompany it, or of good works that are the fruits of it<sup>q</sup>, nor as if the grace of Faith, or any act thereof, were imputed to him for his justification<sup>r</sup>, but onely as it is an Instrument, by which he receiveth and applieth Christ and his righteousness<sup>s</sup>.

justified by faith without the deeds of the law. <sup>t</sup> Rom. 4. 5. But to him that worketh not: but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Compared with <sup>u</sup> Rom. 10. 10. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>v</sup> Job. 1. 12. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. <sup>w</sup> Phil. 3. 9. And be found in him not having mine own righteousness which is by the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. <sup>x</sup> Gal. 2. 16. Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

Q. What is adoption ?

A. Adoption is an act of the free grace of God <sup>a</sup>, in and for his onely Son Iesus Christ <sup>a</sup>, whereby all those that are justified are received into the number of his children <sup>a</sup>, have his Name put upon them <sup>a</sup>, the Spirit of his Son given to them <sup>a</sup>, are under his fatherly care and dispensations <sup>a</sup>, admitted to all the liberties and priviledges of the sons of God, made heirs of all the promises, and fellow-heirs with Christ in glory <sup>a</sup>.

<sup>a</sup> 1 Job. 3. 1. Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. <sup>a</sup> Eph. 1. 5. Having predestinated us to the adoption of children by Iesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. Gal. 4. 4, 5. But when the fulness of time was come, God sent forth his Son made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. <sup>a</sup> 1 Job. 1. 12. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. <sup>a</sup> 2 Cor. 6. 18. And I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. Rev. 3. 12. Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall go no more out, and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem that cometh down out of heaven from my God, and I will write upon him my new name. <sup>a</sup> Gal. 4. 5. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. <sup>a</sup> Psal. 103. 13. Like as a Father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that serve him. Prov. 14. 26. In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence, and his children shall have a place of refuge. Mat. 6. 32. For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. <sup>a</sup> Heb. 6. 12. That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Rom. 8. 17. And if children then heirs, heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

Q. What is Sanctification ?

A. Sanctification is a work of Gods grace, whereby they, whom God hath before the foundation of the world chosen to be holy, are in time, through the powerful operation of his Spirit <sup>b</sup>, applying the death and resurrection of Christ unto them <sup>c</sup>, renewed in their whole man after the Image of God <sup>d</sup>, having the seeds of Re-

Q. Wherein do Justification and Sanctification differ?

A. Although Sanctification be inseparably joined with Justification °, yet they differ, in that God in Justification imputeth the righteousness of Christ °, in Sanctification his Spirit infuseth grace, and enableth to such were some of you ° 1 Cor. 6. 11. And but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Cor. 1. 30. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus; who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. ° Rom. 4. 6—8. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works — V. 8.] Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord will not impute sin.

the exercise thereof <sup>u</sup>; in the former, sin is pardoned *, <sup>u</sup> Ezek. 36. 27. And in the other it is subdued <sup>x</sup>, the one doth equally free all believers from the revenging wrath of God, and that perfectly in this life, that they never fall into condemnation <sup>y</sup>, the other is neither equal in all <sup>z</sup>, nor in this life perfect in any <sup>a</sup>, but growing up to perfection <sup>b</sup>. I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments and do them. * Rom. 3. 24, 25. Being justified freely by his grace

It is God that justifieth, who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. <sup>z</sup> 1 Job. 2. 12, 13, 14. I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you, for his names sake. V. 13.] I write unto you, Fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, yong men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father. V. 14.] I have written unto you fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you yong men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. Heb. 5. 12, 13, 14. For, when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again, which be the first principles of the Oracles of God, and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. V. 13.] For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe. V. 14.] But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use, have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. <sup>a</sup> 1 Job. 1. 8—10. And if we say, that we have no sin, we deceive our selves and the truth is not in us— V. 10.] If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar and his word is not in us. <sup>b</sup> 2 Cor. 7. 1. Having therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. Phil. 3. 12, 13, 14. Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect, but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that, for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. V. 13.] Brethren, I count not my self to have apprehended, but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before: V. 14.] I press toward the mark, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Q. whence ariseth the imperfection of Sanctification in believers?

A. The imperfection of Sanctification in believers, ariseth from the remnants of sin abiding in every part of them, and the perpetual lustings of the flesh against the spirit, whereby they are often foiled with temptations, and fall into many sins <sup>c</sup>, are hindered in all their spiri-

For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing; for, to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good, I find not— V. 23. But I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. Mark 14. 65 — to the end. And as Peter was beneath in the Palace, there cometh one of the maids of the High Priest, &c.— Gal. 2. 17, 18. But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. V. 12.] For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles, but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them who were of the circumcision.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. <sup>e</sup> Esa. 64. 6. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags, and we all do fade as a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. Exod. 28. 38. And it shall be upon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the Lord.

Q. May not true believers by reason of their imperfections; and the many temptations and sins they are overtaken with, fall away from the state of Grace?

Q. Can true believers be infallibly assured that they are in the estate of grace, and that they shall persevere therein unto salvation?

A. Such.

A. Such as truly believe in Christ, and endeavour to walk in all good conscience before him<sup>n</sup>, may, without extraordinary revelation, by faith grounded upon the truth of Gods promises, and by the Spirit enabling them to discern in themselves those graces to which the promises of life are made<sup>o</sup>, and bearing witness with their Spirits that they are the children of God<sup>p</sup>, be infallibly assured that they are in the estate of grace, and shall persevere therein unto salvation<sup>q</sup>.

<sup>o</sup> 1 Joh. 2. 3. And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. <sup>p</sup> 1 Cor. 2. 12. Now we have received, not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given us of God. 1 Joh. 3. 14—18, 19—21—24. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren; he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death— V. 18.] My little children, let us not love in word, nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth. Hereby we know that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. — V. 16.] And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him. Heb. 6. 11, 12. And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end; V. 12.] That ye be not slothful but followers of them who through faith, and patience inherit the promises. <sup>p</sup> Rom. 8. 16. These things have I written unto you, that believe on the name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

Q. Are all true believers at all times assured of their present being in the estate of grace, and that they shall be saved?

A. Assurance of grace and salvation not being of the essence of faith<sup>r</sup>, true believers may wait long before they obtain it<sup>s</sup>, and after the enjoyment thereof may have it weakened and intermitted through manifold distempers, sins, temptations, and desertions<sup>t</sup>, yet sealed with the holy Spirit of promise.

Q. What is the communion in Glory, which the members of the Invisible Church have with Christ?

A. The communion in glory which the members of the Invisible Church have with Christ is, in this life*, immediately after death*, and at last perfected at the resurrection and day of Judgment<sup>v</sup>.

* 2 Cor. 3. 18. But we all with open face beholding, as in a glass, the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. * Luk. 23. 43. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradise. <sup>v</sup> 1 Theff. 4. 17. Then we who are alive, and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Q. What is the communion in Glory, with Christ, which the members of the Invisible Church enjoy in this life?

A. The members of the Invisible Church have communicated to them in this life, the first fruits of glory with Christ, as they are members of him their head, and so, in him, are interested in that glory which he is fully possessed of<sup>z</sup>, and, as an earnest thereof, enjoy the sense of Gods love<sup>a</sup>, peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Ghost and hope of glory<sup>b</sup>: as, on the contrary<sup>a</sup> the sense of Gods revenging wrath, horror of conscience, and a fearful expectation of judgement, are, to the wicked, the beginning of their torments which they shall endure after death<sup>e</sup>.

Q. Shall all men die?

A. Death being threatned as the wages of sin<sup>d</sup>, it is appointed unto all men once to die<sup>e</sup>, for that all have sinned<sup>f</sup>.

<sup>d</sup> Rom. 6.23. For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life through

Q. Death being the wages of sin, why are not the righteous delivered from death, seeing all their sins are forgiven in Christ?

A. The righteous shall be delivered from death it self at the last day, and even in death are delivered from the sting and curse of it<sup>g</sup>, so that, although they die, yet it is out of Gods love<sup>h</sup>, to free them perfectly from sin and misery<sup>i</sup>, and to make them capable of further communion with Christ in glory, which they then enter upon<sup>k</sup>.

Q. What is the communion in Glory with Christ, which the members of the invisibie Church enjoy immediately after death?

A. The communion in Glory with Christ, which the members of the invisibie Church enjoy immediately after death, is, in that their souls are then made perfect in holiness<sup>1</sup>, and received into the highest heavens<sup>m</sup>, where they behold the face of God in light and glory<sup>n</sup>, waiting for the full redemption of their bodies<sup>o</sup>, which even in death continue united to Christ<sup>p</sup>, and rest in their graves as in their beds<sup>q</sup>, till at the last day they be again united to their souls<sup>r</sup>: whereas the souls of the wicked are at death cast into hell, where they remain in torments and utter darkness, and their bodies kept in their graves, as in their prisons, till the resurrection and judgment of the great day<sup>s</sup>.

Q. What are we to believe concerning the Resurrection?

A. We

A. We are to believe that at the last day there shall be a general resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust, when they that are then found alive, shall in a moment be changed; and the self same bodies of the dead which were laid in the grave, being then again united to their souls for ever, shall be raised up by the power of Christ; the bodies of the just, by the Spirit of Christ, and by virtue of his resurrection, as their head, shall be raised in power, spiritual, incorruptible, and made like to his glorious body*, and the bodies of the wicked shall be raised up in dishonour, by him, as an offended Judge*.

V. 17.] Then we who are alive, and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Joh. 5. 28, 29. Marvail not at this, for the hour is coming in the which all that are in the graves, shall hear his voice, V. 29.] And shall come forth, they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. * 1 Cor. 15. 51, 52, 23, — 42, 43, 44. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. Having seen, what the Scriptures principally teach us to believe concerning God; it followes to consider, what they require as the duty of man.

Quest. WHat is the duty that God requireth of man ?
 A. The duty which God requireth of man, is, obedience to his revealed will °.

° Rom. 1. 1, 2. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. V. 2.] And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, that acceptable and perfect will of God. Mic. 6. 8. He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God. 1 Sam. 15. 22. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey, is better than sacrifice; and to hearken, then the fat of rams.

Q. What did God at first reveal unto man as the rule of his obedience ?

A. The rule of obedience revealed to Adam in the estate of innocency, and to all mankind in him, beside a special command, not to eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, was, the Mo<sup>r</sup>

° Gen. 1. 26, 27. And God said, Let us make man in our i-

V. 27.] So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them. Rom. 2. 14, 15. For when the Gentiles who have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the Law, these having not the law, are a law unto themselves. V. 15.] Which shew the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another. Rom. 10. 5. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, that the man which doth those things shall live by them. Gen. 2. 17. But of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die.

Q. What is the Moral Law ?

A. The Moral Law is the declaration of the will of God to mankind, directing and binding every one to personal, perfect, and perpetual conformity and obedience thereunto, in the frame and disposition of the whole man soul and body<sup>p</sup>, and in performance of all those duties of holiness and righteousness which he oweth to God and man<sup>q</sup>; promising life upon the fulfilling, and threatening death upon the breach of it<sup>r</sup>.

V. 3.] The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us; who are all of us alive here this day — V. 31.] But as for thee stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the Statutes and the judgements, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it — V. 33.] Ye shall walk in all the wayes which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which ye shall possess. Luke 10. 26, 27. V. 17.] And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor, as thy self. Gal. 3. 10. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law to do them — V. 12. And the law is not of faith, but the man that doth them shall live in them;

Q. Is there any use of the Moral Law to man, since the fall?

A. Although no man, since the fall, can attain to righteousness and life by the Moral Law<sup>s</sup>, yet there is great use thereof, as well common to all men, as peculiar either to the unregenerate, or the regenerate<sup>t</sup>.

<sup>s</sup> Rom. 8. 3. For what the law could not do, for that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh Gal. 2. 16. Knowing this that a man is not justified by the works of the Law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Jesus Christ, and not by the works of the law, for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. <sup>t</sup> 1 Tim. 1. 8. But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully.

Q. Of what use is the Moral Law to all men?

A. The Moral Law is of use to all men, to inform them:

Lev. 11. 44, 45. For I am the Lord your God, ye shall therefore sanctifie your selves, and ye shall be holy, for I am holy, neither shall ye defile your selves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. V. 45.] For I am the Lord that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God, ye shall therefore be holy for I am holy. Lev. 20. 7, 8. Sanctifie your selves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the Lord your God. V. 8.] And ye shall keep my Statutes, and do them: I am the Lord which sanctifie you. Rom. 7. 12. Wherefore the Law is holy, and the commandment holy, just and good. * Mich. 6. 8. He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God. Jam. 2. 10, 11. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. V. 11.] For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressour of the Law. * Psal. 19. 11, 12. Moreover by them is thy servant warned, and in keeping of them there is great reward. V. 11.] Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults. Rom. 3. 20. Therefore by the deeds of the law shall no flesh be justified in his sight; for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Rom. 7. 7. What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay I had not known sin, but by the law; for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not cover. y Rom. 3. 9—35. What then? are we better then they? No, in no wise; for we have before proved both Jewes and Gentiles that they are all under sin. —V. 35. For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. z Gal. 3. 21, 22. Is the law then against the promise of God? God forbid, for if there had been a law given, which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. V. 22.] But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. a Rom. 10. 4. For Christ is the end of the law, for righteousness to every one that believeth.

Q. What particular use is there of the Morall law to unregenerate men?

A. The Morall Law is of use to unregenerate men, to awaken their consciences to fly from wrath to come b, and to drive them to Christ c; or, upon their continuance in the estate and way of sin, to leave them inexcusable d,

1 Tim. 1. 9, 10. <sup>e</sup> Gal. 3. 10. For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all the things which are written in the book of the Law, to do them.

Q. What special use is there of the Moral Law to the regenerate?

A. Although they that are regenerate, and believe in Christ, be delivered from the Moral Law as a Covenant of works <sup>f</sup>, so as thereby they are neither justified <sup>g</sup>, nor condemned <sup>h</sup>; yet beside the general uses thereof common to them with all men, it is of special use, to shew them how much they are bound to Christ for his fulfilling it, and enduring the curse thereof in their stead, and for their good <sup>i</sup>; and thereby to provoke them to more thankfulness <sup>k</sup>, and to express the same in their greater care to conform themselves thereunto as the rule

Q. Where is the Morall Law summarily comprehended?

A. The Morall Law is summarily comprehended in the Ten Commandments, which were delivered by the voice of God upon mount Sinai, and written by him in two tables of stone <sup>m</sup>, and are recorded in the twentieth chapter of Exodus; the four first Commandments containing our duty to God, and the other six our duty to man <sup>n</sup>.

<sup>m</sup> Deut. 10. 4. And he wrote in the Tables
according to the first
writing, the ten Commandments, which the Lord spake unto you in the Mount, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly, and the Lord gave them unto me. Exod. 34. 1, 2, 3, 4. And the Lord said unto Moses, Hew thee two Tables of stone like unbrakest. V. 2. ] And be ready in the morning, and come up into Mount Sinai, and present thy self there to me in the top of the mount. V. 3. ] And no man shall come up with thee; &c.— V. 4. ]

And he hewed two Tables of stone like the first, and rose early in the morning, and went up into Mount Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him, and took in his hand the two Tables of stone.

and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. V. 38. ] This is that first and great Commandment, V. 39. ] And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self. V. 40. ] On these two Commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

Q. What Rules are to be observed for the right understanding of the ten Commandments?

A. For the right understanding of the ten Commandments, these rules are to be observed.

That the Law is perfect, and bindeth every one to full conformity in the whole man unto the righteousness thereof, and unto intire obedience, for ever, so as, to require the utmost perfection of every duty, and to forbid

bid the least degree of every sin °.

° Psal. 19. 7. The law of the Lord is perfect converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. Jam. 2. 10. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. Matt. 5. 21. to the end. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill— But I say— and so on to the end.

That it is spiritual, and so, reacheth the Understanding, Will, Affections, and all other powers of the soul, as well as words, works, and gestures P.

P. Rom. 7. 14. For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. Deut. 6. 5. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. Compared with Mat. 22. 37, 38, 39. Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy mind, V. 38.] This is the first and great Commandment. V. 39.] And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self. Matt. 5. 21, 22—27, 28,—36. to the end. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill, and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment. V. 22.] But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the Council; but whosoever shall say, thou fool, shall be in danger of hell-fire.— V. 27.] Ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery. But I say unto you, that whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart — V. 36. Neither shalt thou swear by thine head, &c. to the end of the chapter.

That one and the same thing, in divers respects, is required or forbidden in several Commandments °.

bers which are upon the earth, fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Amos 8. 5. Blessed is the man that doth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it ; that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing evil — V. 4.] For thus saith the Lord unto the Eunuchs that keep my Sabbaths, and chuse the things that please me, and take hold of my Covenant — V. 6.] Also the sons of the stranger that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the Name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my Covenant. Q How

Q. How is the Sabbath, or Lords day to be sanctified ?

A. The Sabbath, or Lords day is to be sanctified, by an holy resting all the day <sup>a</sup>, not onely from such works as are at all times sinful, but even from such worldly employments and recreations as are on other dayes lawful <sup>b</sup>, and making it our delight to spend the whole time (except so much of it as is to be taken up in works of necessity and mercy <sup>c</sup>) in the publick and private exercises of Gods worship <sup>d</sup>; and to that end we are to prepare our hearts, and with such fore-sight, diligence and moderation to dispose, and seasonably to dispatch our worldly businesse, that we may be the more free and fit for the duties of that day. <sup>e</sup>

If ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the Sabbath. V. 22. And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and come and keep the gates, to sanctifie the Sabbath. And some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should be no burden brought in on the Sabbath day.

Q. Why is the charge of keeping the Sabbath, more specially directed to governours of families, and other superiours?

A. The charge of keeping the Sabbath is more specially directed to governours of families and other superiours, because they are bound not only to keep it themselves, but to see that it be observed by all those that are under their charge; and because they are prone oft times to hinder them by employments of their own.<sup>f</sup>

Q. What are the Reasons annexed to the fourth Commandment the more to enforce it?

A. The Reasons annexed to the fourth Commandment, the more to enforce it, are taken from the equity of it, God allowing us six daies of seven for our own affairs, and reserving but one for himself, in these words, [ Six daies shalt thou labour, and do all thy work<sup>1</sup>, ] from Gods challenging a special propriety in that day, [ The seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God<sup>m</sup> ] from the example of God, who in six dayes made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; and from that blessing which God put upon that day, not onely in sanctifying it to be a day for his service, but in ordaining it to be a meanes of

Q. Why is the word Remember ſet in the beginning of the fourth Commandment ?

A. The word Remember is ſet in the beginning of the fourth Commandment<sup>o</sup>, partly becauſe of the great benefit of remembering it, we being thereby helped in our preparation to keep it<sup>o</sup>, and in keeping it better to keep all the reſt of the Commandments<sup>o</sup>, and to continue a thankfull remembrance of the two great benefits of Creation, and Redemption, which containe a ſhort abridgement of Religion<sup>r</sup>: and partly becauſe we are very ready to forget it<sup>o</sup>; for that there is leſſe light of nature for it<sup>o</sup>, and yet it reſtraineth our naturall liberty in things at other times lawful<sup>u</sup>; that it cometh but once in ſeven dayes, and many worldly buſineſſes come between, and too often take off our minds from thinking of it, either to pre-

Q. How is the word of God to be read?

Q. By whom is the word of God to be preached?

A. The Word of God is to be preached onely by such as are sufficiently gifted <sup>k</sup>, and also duly sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach—V. 6.] Not a novice, least being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation, &c. Eph. 4. 8, 9, 10, 11. Q. How is the Word of God to be preached by those that are called thereunto?

A. They that are called to labour in the ministry of the Word, are to preach sound doctrine<sup>m</sup>, diligently<sup>n</sup>, in season, and out of season<sup>o</sup>; plainly<sup>p</sup>, not in the enticing words of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and power<sup>q</sup>; faithfully<sup>r</sup>, making known the whole counsel of God<sup>s</sup>; wisely<sup>t</sup>, applying themselves to the necessities and capacities of the hearers<sup>u</sup>; ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. Act. 18. 25. This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the Spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, &c. 2 Tim. 4. 2. Preach the word: be instant in season, out of season; rebuke, reprove, exhort, with all long suffering, and doctrine. 1 Cor. 14. 19. Yet in the Church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. 1 Cor. 2. 4. And my speech, and my preaching was not with enticing words of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power. Jer. 23. 28. The Prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream, and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully: What is the chaff to the wheat, saith the Lord? 1 Cor. 4. 1, 2. Let a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. ### Q. Unto whom is Baptisme to be administred?

A. Baptisme is not to be administred to any that are out of the visible Church, and so strangers from the Covenant of promise, till they professe their faith in Christ, and obedience to him<sup>n</sup>, but infants descending from parents, either both, or but one of them, professing faith in Christ, and obedience to him, are in that respect within the covenant, and to be baptised<sup>o</sup>.

And they brought unto him also infants; that he should touch them; but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. V. 16.] But Jesus called them unto him, and said, suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Rom. 11. 16. For if the first fruits be holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

Q. How is our Baptisme to be improved by us?

S

A. The

A. The needful but much neglected duty of improving our Baptisme, is to be performed by us all our life long; especially in the time of temptation, and when we are present at the administration of it to others, by serious and thankful consideration of the nature of it, and of the ends for which Christ instituted it, the privileges and benefits conferred and sealed thereby, and our solemn vow made therein, by being humbled for our sinful defilement, our falling short of, and walking contrary to the grace of baptisme and our engagements, by growing up to assurance of pardon of sin, and of all other blessings sealed to us in that Sacrament, by drawing strength from the death and resurrection of Christ, into whom we are baptized, for the mortifying of sin, and quickning of grace, and by endeavouring to live by faith, to have our conversation in holiness and righteousness, as those that have therein given up their names to Christ, and to walk in brotherly love, as being bap-

Q. what is the Lords Supper?

A. The Lords Supper is a Sacrament of the New Testament, wherein, by giving and receiving bread and wine according to the appointment of Jesus Christ, his death is shewed forth; and they that worthily communicate, feed upon his body and blood, to their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace, have their union and communion with him confirmed, testify and renew their thankfulness and ingagement to God, and their mutual love and fellowship each with other, as members of the same mystical body.

V. 28.] For this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24, 25, 26. V. 25.] After the same manner also he took the Cup, when he had Supped, saying, This Cup is the New Testament in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. V. 26.] For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come. <sup>b</sup> 1 Cor. 10. 16. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the Communion of the blood of Christ? and the bread which we break, is it not the Communion of the body of Christ? <sup>c</sup> 1 Cor. 11. 24, 25, 26. For we being many are one bread, and one body, for we are all partakers of that one bread.

Q. How hath Christ appointed bread and wine to be given and received in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper?

A. Christ hath appointed the Ministers of his Word, in the administration of this Sacrament of the Lords Supper, to set apart the bread and wine from common use, by the word of institution, thanksgiving, and prayer, to take and break the bread, and to give both the bread, and the Wine to the Communicants, who are, by the same appointment, to take, and eat the Bread, and to drink the Wine, in thankful remembrance, that the body of Christ was broken and given, and his blood shed for them <sup>f</sup>.

A. The Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper, per, agree, in that the author of both is God<sup>m</sup>, the spiritual part of both is Christ and his benefits<sup>n</sup>, both are seals of the same Covenant<sup>o</sup>, are to be dispensed by Ministers of the Gospel and by none other<sup>p</sup>, and to be continued in the Church of Christ until his second coming<sup>q</sup>.

Q. wherein do the Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper differ?

A. The Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper differ, in that, Baptisme is to be administred but once, with water, to be a sign and seal of our regeneration and ingrafting ir to Christ<sup>r</sup>, and that even to infants<sup>s</sup>, whereas the Lords Supper is to be administred often, in the Elements of bread and wine, to represent and exhibit Christ teoufnes which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the holy Ghost. <sup>Gal. 3. 27.</sup> For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. <sup>Gen. 17. 7-9.</sup> And I will establish my Covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting Covenant, to be a God unto thee, and thy seed after thee. <sup>V. 9.]</sup> And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my Covenant therefore, thou and thy seed after thee in their generations. <sup>Act. 2. 38, 39.</sup> Then Peter said unto them, Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. <sup>V. 39.]</sup> For the promise is unto you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. <sup>1 Cor. 7. 14.</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; she were your children, unless, but now they are holy.

<sup>c</sup> 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24, 25] as spiritual nourishment to the soul <sup>e</sup>, and to confirm our continuance and growth in him <sup>u</sup>, and that onely to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves *.

Lord Jesus the same night wherein he was betrayed took bread. V. 24.] And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. V. 25.] After the same manner also he took the Cup, when he had supped, saying, This Cup is the New Testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. V. 26.] For as oft as ye eat this bread, &c. 1 Cor. 10. 16. The Cup of blessing which we blesse, is it not the Communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the Communion of the body of Christ? * 1 Cor. 11. 28, 29. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup. V. 29.] For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lords body.

Q. What is Prayer?

A. Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God <sup>x</sup>, in the Name of Christ <sup>y</sup>, by the help of his Spirit <sup>z</sup>, with confession of our sins <sup>a</sup>, and thankful acknowledgment of his mercies <sup>b</sup>.

* Psal. 62. 8. Trust in him at all times ye people; pour out your hearts before him: God is a refuge for us. <sup>y</sup> Job. 16. 23. And in that day ye shall ask me nothing, verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. <sup>z</sup> Rom. 8. 26. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities, for we know not what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit it self maketh intercession for us, with groanings that cannot be altered. <sup>a</sup> Psal. 32. 5, 6. I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid; I said I will confess my transgressions, and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. V. 6.] For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found, surely, &c. Dan 9. 4. And I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, &c. <sup>b</sup> Phil. 4. 6. Be careful for nothing, but in every thing, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.

Q. Are we to pray unto God onely?

A. God only being able to search the hearts <sup>c</sup>, hear the requests <sup>d</sup>, pardon the sins <sup>e</sup>, and fulfil the desires of all <sup>f</sup>, and only to be believed in <sup>g</sup>, and worshiped with religious worship <sup>h</sup>, prayer, which is a special part thereof <sup>i</sup>, is to

and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest: for thou, even thou onely knowest the hearts of all the children of men. Act. 1. 24. And they prayed, and said, Thou Lord who knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen. Rom. 8. 27. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the Saints according to the will of God: <sup>d</sup> Psal. 65. 2. O thou that hearest prayers, to thee shall all flesh come. <sup>e</sup> Mic. 7. 18. Who is a God like unto thee that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression, of the remnant of his inheritance, &c. <sup>f</sup> Psal. 145. 18, 19. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. V. 19.] He will fulfill the desires of them that fear him, he also will hear their cry, and will save them. <sup>g</sup> Rom. 10. 14. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? &c. <sup>h</sup> Mat. 4. 10. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence Satan, for it is written, Thou &c. <sup>i</sup> Cor. 1. 2. <sup>l</sup> Rom. 10: 14 How then shall they call on him

Q. What is it to pray in the name of Christ?

A. To pray in the Name of Christ, is, in obedience to his command, and in confidence on his promises, to ask mercy for his sake<sup>m</sup>, not by bare mentioning of his Name<sup>n</sup>, but by drawing our encouragement to pray, and our boldness, strength, and hope of acceptance in prayer from Christ and his mediation<sup>o</sup>.

<sup>m</sup> Joh. 14: 13, 14. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. V. 14.]

If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. Joh. 16: 24. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and receive, that your joy may be full. Dan. 9: 14. Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy Sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lords sake. <sup>n</sup> Mat. 7: 21. Not every one that saith unto me Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of heaven, but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven. <sup>o</sup> Heb. 4: 14, 15, 16. Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God; let us hold fast our profession. V. 15.] For we have not an High Priest which cannot be touched with a feeling of our infirmities, but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. V. 16.] Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. Joh. 5: 13, 14, 15. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. V. 14.] And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. V. 15.] And if we know that he heareth whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

Q. Why are we to pray in the name of Christ?

A. The sinfulness of man, and his distance from God by reason thereof, being so great as that we can have no access into his presence without a Mediatour<sup>p</sup>; and there being none in heaven or earth appointed to, or fit for that glorious work, but Christ alone<sup>q</sup>; we are to pray in no other name but his onely<sup>r</sup>.

<sup>p</sup> Joh. 14: 6. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Isa. 59: 1. But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. Eph. 3: 12. In whom we have boldness, and access with confidence, by the faith of him. <sup>q</sup> Joh. 6: 27. Labour not for the meat that perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you, for him hath God the Father sealed. Heb. 7: 25, 26, 27. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing that he ever liveth to make intercession for them. V. 26.] For such an High Priest became us who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heavens, V. 27.] Who needeth not daily as those high Priests, to offer up sacrifice first for his own sins, and then for the peoples; for this he did once, when he offered up himself. 1 Tim. 2: 5. For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus. <sup>r</sup> Col. 3: 17. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Heb. 13: 15. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is the fruit of our lips, giving thanks in his name.

Q. Here:

Q. How doth the Spirit help us to pray?

A. We not knowing what to pray for as we ought, the Spirit helpeth our infirmities, by inabling us to understand both for whom, and what, and how prayer is to be made, and by working and quickning in our hearts (although not in all persons, nor at all times in the same measure) those apprehensions, affections, and graces, which are requisite for the right performance of that duty<sup>f</sup>.

helpeth our infirmities; for we know not what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit it self maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Q. For whom are we to pray?

A. We are to pray for the whole Church of Christ, upon earth<sup>g</sup>; for Magistrates<sup>h</sup> and Ministers<sup>i</sup>, for our selves<sup>k</sup>, our brethren<sup>l</sup>, yea our enemies<sup>m</sup>, and for all sorts of men living<sup>n</sup>, or that shall live hereafter<sup>o</sup>; but not for the dead<sup>p</sup>, nor for those that are known to have sinned the sin unto death<sup>d</sup>.

at Job. 5. 16. If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

Q. For what things are we to pray?

A. We are to pray for all things tending to the glory of God<sup>e</sup>, the welfare of the Church<sup>f</sup>, our own<sup>g</sup>, or others good<sup>h</sup>, but not for any thing that is unlawful<sup>i</sup>.

Q. How are we to pray?

Q. What Rule hath God given for our direction in the duty of prayer?

A. The whole Word of God is of use to direct us in the duty of praying<sup>a</sup>, but the special rule of direction, is that form of prayer which our Saviour Christ taught his Disciples, commonly called the Lords Prayer<sup>b</sup>.

<sup>a</sup> 1 Job. 5. 14. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

Q. How is the Lords Prayer to be used?

A. The Lords Prayer is not onely for direction, as a pattern according to which we are to make other prayers, but may also be used as a prayer, so that it be done with understanding, faith, reverence, and other graces necessary to the right performance of the duty of prayer<sup>c</sup>.

that we should be holy and without blame
before him in love.

Q. How do the Sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The Sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not from any virtue in them, or in him that doth administer them, but only by the blessing of Christ<sup>u</sup>, and the working of his Spirit in them that by faith receive them*.

<sup>u</sup> 1 Pet. 3. 21. The like figure whereunto, even Baptisme, doth also now save us,

Q. To whom is Baptisme to be administred ?

A. Baptisme is not to be administred to any that are out of the visible Church, till they profess their faith in Christ, and obedience to him<sup>c</sup>, but the infants of such as are members of the visible Church are to be baptized<sup>d</sup>.

Q. What is required to the worthy receiving of the Lords Supper?

V. 8.] O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our Kings, to our Princes, to our fathers, because we have trespassed against thee. ## The Ten C O M M A N D M E N T S

E X O D U S, XX.

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the L O R D thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have no other Gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thy self to them, nor serve them: For I the L O R D thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me: and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the L O R D thy God in vain. For the L O R D will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy: Six dayes shalt thou labour and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the L O R D thy God, in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattel, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: For in six dayes the L O R D made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the L O R D blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the L O R D thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbours.

The LORDS PRAYER,

Matth. 6.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven, Give us this day our daily bread, And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

The C R E E D.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ his onely Son our Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, he descended into hell *, the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead: I believe in the holy Ghost: the holy Catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

* i. e. Continued in the state of the dead, and under the power of death till the third day.

SO much of every Question both in the Larger and Shorter Catechism, is repeated in the Answer, as maketh every Answer an entire Proposition, or sentence in it self: to the end the Learner may further improve it upon all occasions, for his encrease in knowledge and piety, even out of the course of catechising, as well as in it.

And albeit the substance of the doctrine comprised in that Abridgement commonly called, The Apostles Creed, be fully set forth in each of the Catechismes, so as there is no necessity of inserting the Creed it self, yet it is here annexed, not as though it were composed by the Apostles, or ought to be esteemed Canonical Scripture, as the Ten Commandments, and the Lords Prayer, (much less a Prayer, as ignorant people have been apt to make both it and the Decalogue) but because it is a brief sum of the Christian faith, agreeable to the Word of God, and anciently received in the Churches of Christ.
